HIGHBALL IN CHICAGO

Scheffel's Derby Colt Arrives From the East in Good Form.

DRAKE TO HAVE A STARTER

Millionaire Turfman Is to Send Rapid Water West—Woodson in Fast Work-out.

Highball, W. M. Scheffel's American Derby colt, arrived in Chicago last night. He came in a special car, but had for traveling companions Major Pulham and Fire Ball, also belonging to Mr. Scheffel. Major Pulham is also a Derby candidate and may possibly start next Saturday. Whether or not it will be in the Derby is not certain.

The train carrying Highball was late, and before the car had been switched from the Pennsylvania tracks to the race track it was 10 o'clock. He was taken off the car inside the track and led immediately over to a barn on Drexel avenue directly north of Sixty-first street, and formerly owned by John West, the harness horse man. This barn also sheltered Hono, the favorite for the Derby in 1902, but Thud May, who had Highball and the rest in charge last night, said he was not superstitious.

STANDS THE JOURNEY WELL.

Highball seemed to be in splendid form and stood his journey from the East well. Trainer Mack spoke enthusiastically of the colt's chances and said that he would run a better race Saturday than he did in the Brooklyn Derby. He said that Pulham would ride him, and that in the hands of a strong jockey it would be a different tale. May had no fear that he could not go the distance.

John A. Drake, who won the Derby with Wyeth twenty years ago, also will have a starter in the big event this year. The millionaire Chicago turfman telegraphed Secretary Howard of the Washington Park Club yesterday that he would send Rapid Water West. The colt will be shipped from the East to-day and is due here Sunday. The RECORD-HERALD last night from New York stated that Jockey Lyne, who guided Wyeth home in the Derby, had told Drake in his message to Secretary Howard said he could not send Ort Wells, as he is engaged to start in the Tidal and Hoodlum, but that he could not forego the pleasure of having a starter, so Rapid Water would be sent.

THREE POSSIBLE STARTERS.

Woodford & Buckner arrived at the track yesterday with a stable of fifteen in charge of L. V. Bulger. Mr. Bulger brought the news that Woodford & Buckner would start either Brand New or Comrade in the Derby provided the track was fast. It is also said that T. C. McDowell would in all likelihood send Delmonico to the post Saturday, and there was a probability that Silk Maid would also face the barrier in the big race. Silk Maid was beaten by Delmonico Saturday at Latonia, after giving the winner a big chunk of weight. B. Davis will ride Brand New or Comrade if either starts and Lyne will probably have the mount on Delmonico.

John W. Schorr has seventeen horses stabled at the Hawthorne track, including Mohairb. The latter colt has been backed down to 5 to 1 in the future books. Fort Hunter, D. Dwyer's colt, is expected at the track early this morning.

From the East came the information last night that Jockey Shaw will probably ride English Lad. It is said he has been promised $1,000, win or lose, and $3,000 if he wins. Tommy Burns has been offered the mount on Flo Bob and will probably accept.

WOODSON IN FAST WORKOUT.

Secret workouts are beginning to be reported from the different tracks. The latest concerns Woodson, L. B. Dickerson's colt. Woodson is said to have had a phenomenal trial Saturday forenoon at Hawthorne. The colt was sent the full Derby route and covered it in 2:34¾, the last quarter being by furlongs was as follows: 0:22¼, 0:48¾, 1:14¾, 1:40¾, 1:33, 2:06¼ and 2:34¾.

The workout of Woodwind, which it prove to be true, is by all odds the best for the Derby. Only two Derbies have ever been run in faster time, Ruby Red and Sadie The Picket being the only ones with better marks. In his recent workouts Woodson has not shown up as a world-beater, but judging from his workout it may be another case of The Picket.

BIG FIELD PROBABLE.

As the Derby colts begin to arrive at the Washington Park track it increases the probability of a big field. The following estimate of probable starters was made by an official of the Washington Park Club yesterday:

Felipe Lugo.	Ele Bob.	*Jason.
English Lad.	Proof Reader.	Mohairb.
*Wilwood.	*Woodson.	Tipsy.
*Hainland.	Buccaneer.	Flower King.
Bullrigin.	Brand New.	Wind Wave.
Delmonico.	Fort Hunter.	*Proceeds.
Hyehoe.	Ort Wells.	*Homecrest.
*F. Silverings.	*Silk Maid.

*F. model.

There are several owners who may try to get in the track early and deep and holding, in which case they would appear that one might stand just as good a show as another. There will probably be a number of scratches in either case.

Get Odds the Old Way.

[SPECIAL TO THE RECORD-HERALD.]

MEMPHIS, June 13.—Many boisterous people who flocked here yesterday and Saturday for a free ride to witness the opening of the new jockey club, lost heavily in holding pari-mutuel tickets on the Memphis Jockey Club's opening meeting. Thousands of people who had never before seen the Memphis Jockey Club's pari-mutuel machines, or even the Memphis Jockey Club's pari-mutuel machines, or even the Memphis Jockey Club's pari-mutuel machines, or even
