"You Cured My Father of Rheumatism"

"Now, how much do we owe you?" said a young man.

"Nothing but your good will," replied the Health Teacher.

(Special.)—Erie, Pa.—Mr. Locker, who lives near West Alexander, is over 65 years old. He suffered for a long time with rheumatism in his back and shoulders. His knees and ankles would also pain and swell. About three weeks ago his son, Frank, explained the case to the Health Teacher, and a treatment of Quaker was recommended and obtained. Results were followed and results received can be learned from the words of Mr. Locker himself, who was able to come to the drug store.

"Three weeks ago I suffered from rheumatism in my back, shoulders, knees and ankles; today I am well—cured by Quaker Herb Extract.

His son, Frank, then said: "How much do we owe you?" Whereupon the Health Teacher replied: "Nothing but your good will. Let other sufferers about this cure, and that they also may be cured."

This case shows not only the remarkable power of Quaker Herb Extract and Oil of Balm, but also the Health Teacher's honesty, sincerity and liberality. If you suffer with rheumatism, catarrh, kidney, liver, stomach or blood troubles, try Quaker Herb Extract, $1.00, 2 for $1.50. Oil of Balm, 25c. From Hoeschler Bros.' Two Northwestern Teams Flicker Out at the End

Columbus, O., Sept. 27.—Columbus players, so the story goes here, saved Charley Havenor's baseball pocketbook $150 Sunday afternoon by beating Frank Schaefer, 5 to 4, in the last and abbreviated game of the season. Prior to the flower loss of the final game, the Columbus club had been worried in a game of regulation length. The score was 10 to 9 and the Senators had the bases filled in the ninth when the side was retired.

Schaefer's kicking came right at the end. If the Senators had not gone ahead in the fifth, the game might have gone a while longer. As it was there was nothing but applause for Umpire Sullivan when he stopped play as 2,000 people was almost frozen. Scores:

SCHARDT TO BROOKLYN BOSTON GETS BREEN

OFFICIAL BULLETIN SHOWS THE CHANGES FOR 1910

Official Bulletin No. 21, just issued by Secretary J. H. Farrell of the National Baseball association shows that Pitcher Schardt, who was sold by the La Crosse club to Indianapolis in the American association and later claimed by Brooklyn by draft, goes to Brooklyn, the draft claim having been allowed by the national commission.

Breen of Duluth, who was drafted by the St. Paul club of the American association and the Boston club of the American league, has been awarded to the Boston club, although he is still playing with the St. Paul club. Breen will report to Boston in the spring.

Russ Bailey and Pitcher Leo Schreder of the Red Claws club have been drafted by the Milwaukee club of the American association, but the claim to Schreder has been disallowed because of a sales agreement with a Springfield club of the Three-Eye league. Schreder will report to Springfield in the spring.

Notice of the sale of Shortstop Kohl of Duluth to St. Paul is given and also of the sale of Eli Cates, John Moore and Win Byers to Minneapolis by Wilmette.

Notice is also given of the release by Wilmette of Corbett, which prevents him from being drafted and also prevents him from signing with the Wilmette club next season. The rules governing the transfer of players by national association clubs prevents the releasing of a player during the draft, ing season, or if a player is released at that time he can not resign with the same club the next season.

ATHLETICS' CHANCES NOW NOT THE BEST

ONLY NINE GAMES LEFT IN AMERICAN LEAGUE

Philadelphia, Sept. 27.—The home stretch in the race for the American league baseball pennant, and the next few days will decide whether Detroit or the Athletics will win the prize. Philadelphia has still nine games to play and Detroit eight.

The home team will meet Cleveland today and tomorrow. Chicago will follow for five games in three days, and on Saturday and Monday, Washington will be here, the latter game ending the season. Detroit has eight games remaining—two with New York, four with Boston and two with Chicago. Sixteen points separate the teams, but both enthusiasts and partisans, each day lessens the chance of the Philadelphia team to win out. The Athletics still have hope that New York will take both games of the series from the western team to enable Philadelphia's men to finish first. The weather is clear and cool.

HIGHS PLAY ALUMNI TAKE GAME 5 TO 0

EXCITING GAME PLAYED SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Alumni's Are Heavier, But Highs Are Better Drilled and Trained

Has Elbow Dislocated, Bone Broken and Pushed Out of Place

Before a crowd which made up in enthusiasm what it lacked in numbers the game between the High school team and the Alumni's was fought Saturday afternoon on the local gridiron at the League park. The Alumni had rather the advantage in weight, but the Highs more than made up for this by their superior endurance, due to better training. Also the lack of practice of the Alumnis was made evident by several mishaps and fumbles.

The lineup of the two teams was as follows:

High School	Position	Alumni
Ray	R. E.	Hyde
Schlabach	R. T.	Holbrook
Chamberlain	R. G.	Starkman
E. Hundredmark	C.	W. Mueller
Davis	L. G.	Theis
Brindley	L. T.	Jungbluth
Collins	L. E.	F. Novak
Shaw	Quarter	J. Pavlor
H. Hundredmark	R. H.	Grimes
Shirley	F. B.	E. Moeller
Ed Starrum	L. H.	Dickens

Hyde, who played right end for the Alumni, made a high school record but played with the Alumni in order to fill out the team.

The game started quite promptly, the Alumni kicking off to the Highs. In the next few minutes of play, the graduates were played quite off heir feet, the Highs ranking the ball directly toward the west goal. The Alumni fought desperately, and for a time it was very doubtful what the issue would be, when Ray suddenly broke through the Alumni line and made a touchdown close to the goal posts. Ray also tried to kick a goal, but the ball went wide. Score 5 to 0 in favor of the Highs.

In the remaining minutes of play, a punting game was employed, being by a sure of content between Ray for the Highs, and Holbrook for the Alumni, the balls ranking the field. The ball was rushed back and forth by both teams, but the Alumni were being forced to punt on the third down in almost every instance. Straight football was almost entirely employed, only a few forward passes and trick plays being used. In these the Highs showed their better training, Ray and Collins rolling the ball almost every time for a forward pass. Several times during the game the two teams called time on their teams to get their breaths, and there were a few cases of injuries, due to the ground being excessively hard at this season of the year. The Alumni's at last got the ball down near the west goal when a touchdown became probable. Fowler tried a drop kick from the field. The ball rose safely without being blocked, but went just a little to the right, leaving the score unchanged.

The game again lined down after the kickoff, but all efforts at another touchdown by the Highs were fruitless, and time was called after a few more minutes of play.

RECEIVED BALL.

In the second half several changes were made in the High lineup. Strus succeeded Ray at right end, Chamberlain succeeded Schlabach at right tackle, Schlabach succeeded Chamberlain at right guard. Samuel Gilbertson, brother of H. Hundredmark at right half, and Keeler succeeded Davis at left guard. This half proved to be much the same as the first, Gilbertson's long punts succeeding Ray as chief booter for the Highs. The Highs came very near scoring at the middle of the half, Alumni line stood firm, and all efforts of line bucks failed to carry the ball under the posts.

In about the middle of the half Frank Novak, who had played left end for the Alumni, was the victim of a serious accident. Novak is a man of the hoop, however, came forward to the Alumni's assistance gentleman who, after an examination of the injuries, pronounced the left arm dislocated at the elbow, and also part of the bone broken and shoved out of place. He quickly improvised two splints with which he bound the arm, wrapping a towel over the sticks. That's what happened to Novak, or at the scene and in the Novak was hurried to the La Crosse hospital under the care of Professor dodgson. Frank was a graduate of last year's class, and a very prominent athlete in football, track work and in baseball, catching for the Alumni's ball team. It is hoped that the injuries are not as serious as the first diagnosis would indicate.

The play was resumed, and the same old punting fashion were revived to the ball being at first one end of the field, and now at the other. The Highs had a few more chances to score, but found it impossible to net their required yards. Neither the teams were held for downs, both punting the hard down. Just before time was called, the Alumni got to within 10 of the Highs goal, and had lost the ball on a fumble and it was immediately punted out into the middle of the field by the Highs, which would be out of danger. After a few minutes more time was called, leaving the score as it was in the first half, 5 to 0 in favor of the High school team.
