WHITNEY GUILTY ON CHARGE OF WOMAN

Millionaire Changes His Plea, Visits Court to Pay Fine of $2500

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—Parker Whitney, scion of a prominent family, and placed in the millionaire class by his father, the late J. Parker Whitney, today decided to change his plea to "guilty" in the white slave case against him.

With his attorney, James Sweeney, he went to the United States district court ready for the formality and prepared for a fine of $2500.

In connection with this development attention was again centered on the recent opinion of Federal Judge Dooling that a commercial motive must be shown under the Mann white slave act under which Whitney was arrested on complaint of Mrs. Genevieve Hannan Harris. The woman is now in Chicago.

U. S. District Attorney Preston was prepared today with an address severely criticising both Whitney and the beautiful woman who said he lured her from New York to a tour of the country under promise of marriage.

Whitney's manner today was defiantly. He had his automobile in readiness, and left for his foothill estate immediately upon the close of the court formalities, when he paid his $2500 fine.

A surprise was sprung at the hearing when Mrs. Harris was accused of bigamy. A Mr. Gilbert's unannounced charge was made that she was married, already when she became the wife of Arthur H. Harris, a rich Texan, in Los Angeles, after coming to California with Whitney.

According to Attorney Sweeney, she married Victor Baisden in Georgetown, Canada, six years ago, and was never divorced. Baisden is traveling salesman for a Chicago engineering house, and is now on the road in Canada, being in Saskatchewan today.

WHITTIER O. K.'S PLAN FOR $150,000 STREET PAVING

WHITTIER, April 15.—The board of trustees of this city has gone on record in favor of the bond issue for the paving of five principal streets at a cost of $150,000. The streets are Philadelphia, Hadley, Painter, Greenleaf and Pickering.
