THE SPORTING WORLD

NEW YORK WILL KEEP BOXING ON THE LEVEL

(By United Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—New York will get its first whack at "guaranteed boxing" tonight. When Sam Langford and Sam McVey mix at the American Sporting Club, datte fans are going to be sure of one thing—if the hotel in a fake they'll get their money back.

Also, neither of the blacks will get a dime until Charlie White, the referee, decrumbles whether the mill is on the level. He will not decide that tomorrow. The battle will be for 12 rounds.

Johnny Dundee was proclaimed winner of his 10-round bout with Phil Bloom last night, but he realized today he had been in a regular fish. Bloom took him along at a faster pace than he ever traveled before.

Another deep, dark-hued secret that the O. B. and Federal magnates thought until it becomes a mystery is wiping the rounds of sportdom today. Here 'tis: James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league, left on the 20th Century Limited on a Mysterious journey to Chicago, after receiving Manly telephone calls which Adv.

HARVARD HOPES FOR HAUGHTON ANOTHER TERM

(By United Press.)

BOSTON, Nov. 23.—Although Percy D. Haughton's contract as coach of Harvard football has expired, Fred W. Moore, graduate manager of the Harvard Athletic association, today expressed confidence that he will sign up for at least another three years with a substantial increase in the money end.

Rumors from New York and New Haven name "Charlie" Daly, Army coach, as a possible successor, but in considering Haughton's successful handling of the Crimson squads and his popularity throughout the student body it is considered almost certain that there will be no change.

A SCRAPPY GAME.

Is Expected When Cornell and Pennsylvania Meet.

(By United Press.)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—No matter what the dopesters' predictions may be, the atmosphere in gridiron quarters today was overwhelmingly charged with the same excitement that always attends the annual Thanksgiving clash of Cornell and Pennsylvania.

Both elevens are counted upon to stage the scrappiest of scrappy struggles. Each will play its last game of the season and each is firm in its determination to close it with glory. Although the Quakers have eaten the dust of practically every team they have faced this year, the old spirit of rivalry will predominate in the battle with the eastern champions.

At the White Marsh Country club the Penn squad went through a very light signal drill and played golf. The Cornell squad passed through here early today, en route to Atlantic City, where a two-day rest at the seashore is counted upon to put it in prime condition for the game Thursday.

CUBS SECURE COLLEGE MAN WHO CAN PITCH

By J. P. YODER.

(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The raid of the Middle Western universities for young blood has already begun by the big leagues. The first victim is Mal Galvin, the big Wisconsin fullback, who resigned from the Badger squad a few days ago, following charges that he had played summer baseball.

Galvin, according to President Thomas of the Cubs, has practically agreed to sign a Cub contract.

The ex-football star is said to have been one of the best college pitchers in the West. He has a world of endurance and is touted as a comer. He has a zipping fast ball and a curve with a nasty break to it. His control is better than the average collegee. Galvin is a six footer and weighs 176.

Ritchie Beat McAndrews.

(By United Press.)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—Willie Ritchie, the California ex-lightweight champion, earned a hair-line decision over Eddie McAndrews, local welterweight, in six slashing rounds at the Olympia last night. Ritchie was forced to his best by the aggressive Philadelphian and only earned the decision by his ability to put over staggering hooks that shook McAndrews considerably.

The Billiardists.

(By United Press.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—A thousand dollars in cash and unlimited fame will go to Welker Cochran, the Iowa youngster, if he can defeat Willie Hoppe tonight in the final match of the championship 18.2 handicap tournament. Cochran will have a handicap of 200. Cochran defeated Yamada by one point and Hoppe won over Sutton in the semi-final matches.

HOW WORDS COME TO PICTURE IDEAS

Philologists Can Read History from Words a Country Uses.

—Sometimes words are borrowed bodily from another language. Sometimes a foot-word is borrowed, chiefly cast from the Latin or Greek, and an English ending given it. Again, we take two old words, join them together and make a new one. At first we separate them by the hyphen, but after a while that is left out, and the two are mingled as a single word. Then, we take a prefix or a suffix from some other tongue, and add it, after or before, and we have another new word. Or when a word is too long, we shorten it—because we English-speaking people are great for saving time.

Words Reveal History.

A philologist can read history from a word; as to when it first came into use, what caused it, the conditions of the time, the attitude of the people, the state of literature, the wars going on and many other things that he sees in it. A word orbs the civilization of its time, as a dewdrop mirrors the heavens. Every maker of words is a poet, whether he knows it or not. The word "poet" comes from a Greek verb meaning "to make." Poets generally make words that seek to convey the idea by sound.

Thousands of new words are defined in The New Universities Dictionary which we are now offering almost free to our readers. It ought to be in every home, office, workshop and study. It can be made the means of self-culture to a very large extent. The coupon offer elsewhere in this paper explains the terms upon which you may get it.

Books Ready Tomorrow.

The second coupon appears today, the third will appear tomorrow, and then the doors open to the great educational flood. Don't wait for a later chance; eager readers may exhaust the limit supply.

The New Universities Dictionary is profusely illustrated in color and duotone. It has many full pages and double pages of magnificent color plates. Each is a work of art. The book is an ornament to any table or desk, and its presence stamps a home or office as up-to-date, refined and educated. No man, woman, boy or girl can afford to be without it.—Adv.

RIFLE TEAMS PUT PUNCTURES IN BULL'S EYE

ERIFMIRS BEAT BUDDS AND CENTERS OUTSHOOT WAMPECHOS—FULLER GETS FIRE 99 AND STEDMAN, BARDEN AND TURNER ALSO SHOOT WELL.

The fifth week of offhand team matches in the Taunton Indoor Rifle club opened quite in old-time style with two good matches in which all four teams had full ranks and also for good measure and several good scores were turned in.

The Erifmirs and Budds had a good match on one range which was won by the Erifmirs by a score of 354 to 370. Stedman was high for the winners with 93 and Barden was a good second with 88. L. Budd was not far below with 74 and 75 by both E. Lincoln and Tibbetts kept the average up for the high team total of the evening.

The Echoes, however, had the honor of the evening for a single string when Fuller turned in the fine score of 99. One 7 and one 8 were in his first target, but all his other shots were in the 9 and 10 rings and his second target of 47 equals the record of the year for a single target. Turner was a good second with 96 and Rugg was next with 94. A 66 by Dewey and 65 by Rouse kept the average just too low to win.

On the other range the Centers shot a good match against the Wampechos and won out, 383 to 366. The Centers' team work was fine and only three points separated the high and low scores and they were all good ones. Salisbury led with 78, Walker and Currier had 77 each, Shepard 75 and W. Taylor 75, which was pretty even shooting and brought the team total only one point below the high total of the evening.

The Wampechos also shot evenly, but their figures were a little too low. Woodward was high with 77, Plummer and C. Hackett scored 73 each, Osgood 71 and H. Story 64.

There are no matches scheduled for tonight and only one on Wednesday night, when the Highlands meet the Westminsetts. Owing to the holiday on Thursday there will be two matches on Friday night this week. Last night's scores follow:

TWO PENN STARS WHO ARE EXPECTED TO SHINE BRIGHTLY IN ANNUAL CORNELL GAME.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 23.—With the annual Thanksgiving game with Cornell only a short time away, Pennsylvania coaches are making every effort to get together the strongest team possible to play against the Ithacans. Within the past week a number of changes have been made, but no more are expected. While Penn has shown up well on the gridiron this season the molesskin warriors of the red and blue always put up their strongest game against Cornell. Penn men expect big things from the backfield, which has been strengthened during the past week. Ross, who has been starring at halfback in the practice games, is one fellow whom Cornell must watch. Wray has been playing his usual steady game on the line, and Cornell may expect some trouble when they encounter this fellow.
