No More Piles
Doctor's Prescription Guaranteed
Thousands of Pile sufferers do not know that the cause of Piles is internal—the stagnation of blood in the lower bowel.
This is the scientific truth about Piles—the real reason why salves and suppositories do not give lasting relief, why cutting does not remove the cause.
Your itching, bleeding or protruding Piles will only get worse when you actually remove the causes. External treatments can't do this—as internal medicine should. So most REM-HOID the prescription of Dr. J. S. Lombardi, used by good druggists everywhere successfully because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, heals and restores the affected parts.
So why waste time on external remedies or wait long when you can tion when all Rheal and Cunningham drugs stores are so sure you suffer to try REM-HOID with a guarantee of one-fifth back if not perfectly satisfied with the help one bottle gives.

'Main Street' on WJR at 8

Margaret Speaks Sings Romberg Arias

Barbara Stanwyck and Fred MacMurray will play the leading roles in Sinclair Lewis' "Main Street," in the Radio Theater, at 8 o'clock, this evening, over WJR. The play is the story of a typical American small town.

At 9, over WWJ, the Contented Hour will feature the "Three Dorings," Cyril Pitts, tenor; Opal Craven, lyric soprano; the orchestra and ensemble.

Margaret Speaks, soprano, at 7:30 tonight, over WWJ, during the "Voice" program, will sing selections from two of Sigmund Romberg's best-known operettas—"Song of Love" from "Blossom Time," and "Auf Wiedersehn," from "Blue Paradise."

Fibber McGee will paddle his own canoe at 7 tonight, over WWJ, and will take Molly on the ride of her life. Ted Weems will provide the music. At the same hour, over WJR, during Horace Heidt's show, you will hear the return of the four King Sisters.

Air Gossip

—HERSCHELL HART—

When B. A. Rolfe takes over the Fred Waring show next Friday night, he will start his 547th broadcast, and will play his 8,531st dance tune since he started broadcasting in 1925 . . . Nelson Eddy starts for that nose drop manufacturer, Sunday, Sept. 27, not July 27, as one good listener remembered . . . Josef Pasternack will supply the musical background . . . Phil Regan, the "Singing Cop" had collected $400 to help Tommy McLaughlin fight tuberculosis, when Tommy died . . . Now Phil is continuing his collections and will give the money to Tommy's parents . . . By-the-way, I guess you knew that Tommy used to live in Detroit . . . He was only 27 . . . Capt. Frank Hawks, famous daredevil aviator, will do a series of stunt flights for a watch manufacturer, and will discuss the thrills in a series of broadcasts, to start Sept. 1.

"The news for today," writes Jack Benny to this column, "is not that I am making a picture here in Hollywood, not that I have rented the Countess di Frasso's house in Beverly Hills, and not that Leopold Stokowski has refused to listen to my fiddled version of 'Love in Bloom' . . . The real, hot, live-star final fact is that I'm playing six different varieties of golf and that the golf ball industry is declaring an extra dividend on the strength of my tee eccentricities . . . Mary got tired of waiting for me to come home the other day and is off visiting relatives in Seattle, her native land . . . There's still a little matter of "The Big Broadcast of 1937' to be taken care of yet, but I'll be back on the air in October. Until then, I'm yours—Benny" . . . Gladys Osborn of "If WWJ Had Television,' is back today after her vacation at the lake. . . . Really glad to get back, she says. . . . Jessica Dragonette, the "Queen of Radio," is to be made an "admiral" Friday by Ohio's governor. . . . She will be the first woman so honored.

The Morin Sisters are suffering from the effects of their first vacation in five years . . . Evelyn has an infected ear . . . Pauline's neck is stiff for some unexplained reason, and Marge is nursing many bruises suffered in a bus accident . . . Gale Page is back in Chicago after a vacation with her parents in Seattle . . . Jimmy Braddock, the ex-longshoreman who fought his way to the heavyweight championship, will be the guest of Frank Fay Friday night . . . Carson Robinson and his Buckaroos, who were a sensation in England three years ago, have received a sizeable cash offer to return . . . During the broadcast of the six Democratic governors the other night, New York listeners kept calling in to ask if the program was part of the "Hit Parade," because the band kept playing the "Hit Parade" theme song, "Happy Days are Here Again" . . . The answer is that the "Hit Parade" sponsor, owning all rights to that song, lets the Democrats use it.

Killed in West

LAPEER, Mich., Aug. 3.—Funeral services will be held here Wednesday for Everett V. Crankshaw, 29 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernor Crankshaw, of Hadley, who was killed at Jackson, Wyo., Saturday night. His automobile plunged over an embankment and into a river. A girl riding with him also was killed. Crankshaw, who owned a filling station at Jackson, formerly lived at Hadley.
