

PARK THEATER
This Week Thursday, Friday, Saturday
KATZES-PHELAN
MUSICAL COMEDY CO.

OFFER
GEORGE OVEY

AND 25 PEOPLE IN POPULAR, UP-TO-DATE MUSICAL

SPECIAL SCENERY—STELLAR CAST—ELECTRICAL EFFECTS

MATINEES—THUR., "A KNIGHT FOR A DAY."

FRI., "THE RUNAWAYS."

SAT., "GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS."

NIGHTS—THUR., "GIRLS WILL BE GIRLS."

FRI., "A KNIGHT FOR A DAY."

SAT., "GIRLS, GIRLS, GIRLS."

PRICES—Evening, 10c 25c 50c—Matines, 10c 25c

427

Park Theatre

TURKO-ITALY WAR
PICTURES

December 26-27
MATINEES DAILY
Prices 10-20c

dec 26 27

MUSIC HALL
TODAY
THE KIDDIES' CHRISTMAS

And
Mr. James E. Dunn
The famous Negro Comedy Company taking singing diversified songs. No Advance in Price.

JOHN H. ELDRIDGE
(Business to be Continued)
Insurance of Every Description
Surbs. Bonds. Crocker Building.

BROKEN LENSES REPLACED.
No Delay.
Save Your Pieces.

HARRY W. BRIGGS
Optometrist and Optician

Room 11—A-Crock Building
TAUNTON, MASS.
Telephone No. 200 to 12
Tuesday Night—Saturday Night
Complete Grinding Out.
No Delays.

HILL WILL RETIRE
FROM PRESIDENCY
OF RAILWAY SOON.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Cures all blood humors, all eruptive diseases the complexion creates an appetite aids digestion, relieves that tired feeling, gives vigor and vim. Get it today in usual drug stores or powdered tablets called "Sarsaparilla."

LANGTRY HAS A CLOSE CALL
IN ACCIDENT

LEICESTER, Mass., Dec. 27.—Secretary of State A. P. Langtry, the wife of a former governor, was taken to a hospital in Boston after an accident in which she was struck by a car. Card Player of Worcester. Both machines were well into the ditch when the accident occurred at 7 o'clock in the evening. Mr. Langtry, who was driving a Buick, was unable to stop in time to avoid the car. He was soon down and his wife, who had been driving, found Mr. Langtry unconscious, having hurried to the car. He was conscious when he was found, but the car was wrecked and all the occupants escaped with a few minor injuries.

SECOND DEGREE
PLEA ACCEPTED FOR BERUBE

NEW BEDFORD, Dec. 27.—By an arrangement made yesterday morning, Attorney Joseph T. Kenney, Edward F. Hall, and Judge Edward F. Hall at the police court, New Bedford, accepted a plea of guilty to the first degree murder for the killing of Morris Berube, 21, of New Bedford, in Fall River last June, pleaded guilty to the charge of manslaughter and accepted sentence in the afternoon. The court adjourned to consider the case of the witness, and the witness will present the facts to the jury.

District Attorney Kenney stated that he was willing to admit the charge of murder in the second degree.

WILL RAISE BEEF.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27.—American and Canadian capitalists have agreed to form a company to build a Canadian government and plan the production of beef products in the history of the world.

TOO MANY WOLVES.

HANCOCK, Mich., Dec. 27.—Officers here have organized mutual defense companies to protect the citizens of Hancock which are making the city the center of the beef production project in history.

STOLE THE SNAIL.

VIRGINIA, Dec. 27.—Vandals have stolen the skull of Kara Gorgon Petrovitch from the tomb in St. George's Cemetery, here, and the founder of the Sarajevo dynasty has a new resting place.

A FINE ALIBI.

CHICAGO, Dec. 27.—The best will be done to find the man who has been shown who a Mrs. Lydia Johnson described as a possible murderer. Two months ago she had a similar tooth.

TO CHASE POLITICIANS.

HARTFORD, Conn., Dec. 27.—Politicians standing in the way of the proposed highway between New Haven and New Haven should be removed according to an announcement of T. C. Tamm, president of the state legislature, leader in the vice crusade today.

ANNUAL REFURBISH.

ROME, Italy, Dec. 27.—The Vatican has refused to grant Count Benito Mussolini a dispensation from his marriage to Anna, now the Duchess Anna Tataynaya.

Saw Miners.

"Honest, I never had a burglar in your room when you called the police?"

"My wife had shifted the mirror in my room, and I didn't know it."

—Detroit Free Press.

Real Estate Agents.

Here is one way a man may be made to pay for his sins. Find a clay hole and make bricks out of the clay.

Get a hole in the bone with it.

If you can get away with it, you can get away with it. Get a hole in the bone to fill it with a dummy and sell it for a manufacturing site.—Chicago Tribune.

The Druse.

What kind of a man is a druse? Father, I am a druse. I am a revolving door and water for some one to push to it. I am a door to be pushed to push—Tulane, Miss.

Don't push with caution, but not with decision; yield with gracefulness or oppose with firmness.

Conspirators.

Practically nothing else of the same is in evidence, and it is a deadly act.—Atlanta Constitution.

LIFE PRISONER IN OHIO OWES HIS PARDON TO GOVERNOR HARMON'S WIFE.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 27.—Read an upright life, Burham was once a member of a prominent (O.) man, for whom critics Miss Johnson, before making the plea that influenced the governor to commute his sentence, was a man of great influence in the prison. The man, Mrs. Harmon, was the widow of Harmon, the man of the prison.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.

He was to be given a furlough

of 15 days, and was to be

allowed to go to his home in

Massillon, O., where he is to

remain until his release on

Dec. 27.

Harmon, who was serving a

sentence of 15 years for the

murder of his wife, was to be

released from prison on Dec. 27.