

Local Siftings

SIN IS RAMPANT IN OUR STREETS

REV. PAUL KOZIEREK OF THE McDonald Avenue Polish branch of the First Congregational church, has recently gone to a home in Austria where he made a study of church methods applicable to his local church.

THE BUSINESS INSTITUTE'S faculty and students will give the first of a series of monthly entertainments in the auditorium building at 1818 Cass avenue, Thursday at 8 p.m. A good program has been arranged.

JACOB T. CEDAR INSTITUTED divorce proceedings against his wife, Carrie, in the Wayne circuit court, Tuesday morning. The decree, which grants decrees to John S. from Little Vernon, and to Emily from Elvete Vernon.

HEARING ON THE PETITION of Barbara Powell, for a writ of habeas corpus, was postponed Tuesday morning. The hearing will be in the United States district court. Powell is one of the alleged robbers of the assassin, British Columbia bank.

MISS LUCIA LYONS, WHO HAS just returned from important missions in Canada, in Canada, tendered her resignation to the First Congregational church Wednesday evening. Mrs. Lyons, a member of the Y. M. C. A. and a granddaughter of Nelson Baker & Co., and a granddaughter of the late George Baker.

TESTIMONY IN THE TRIAL of Victor H. Helm, charged with a violation of the Mann white slave law, was given in Canada. Helm was a passenger on the steamer "Clarendon" in the United States district court Tuesday. Judge Sessions charged that Helm's wife was on the stand the greater part of the afternoon. She is a woman of 20, and it is thought she may have brought to Detroit in violation of the Mann law.

IN THE SHADOW OF THE Trumbull avenue police station, Michigan and Trumbull avenues, a purse snatcher can up to Miss Mary Heggen, 18, at 10:30 p.m. Tuesday afternoon and grabbed her handbag, containing $5.00 and some other articles. From the police station, he heard the young woman screaming and ran out. After a long chase, he captured N. H. Schneider and recovered the purse and the man bought that lot.

ACCUSED OF STEALING 11,000 dollars' value at $300 from the Lake Shore freight line, George Vann, a teamster, 29 years old, 647 Seventeenth street, was arrested Tuesday afternoon and locked up in Central station Tuesday night. The man, who was the Vann, had his truck on the freight dock, loaded the cigars and drove away. When police pursued him, he jumped from the truck and escaped arrest until Tuesday.

WOMEN APPLAUD POLITICAL TALKS

Fair Audience Hears Republican Convention Speakers at Light Guard Armory.

No fairer audience ever greeted a speaker in the Detroit Light Guard Armory than Michigan women who occupied the balcony seats during the Republican state convention Tuesday evening. Some who have attended political meetings in Detroit for years, Mrs. George G. Gault Ste. Marie, was among those who attended the early sessions of the convention. She was accompanied by Miss Harrison, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. Harrison of the No. 1 Hotel Russell, Grand Rapids, wife of State Land Commissioner Russell, and a shiny new member of the national wife of the former superintendent of public instruction, Mrs. Frederick C. Martindale, also an attendant.

Mrs. Arthur C. Scidmore, of Three Rivers, wife of the Republican state auditor, was accompanied by Miss Clara Poole, for several years stenographer in the house of representatives, and Misses Anna and Mrs. Clayton Lorring, wives of state employees of Lansing, and Mrs. Jason C. Jones, wife of the state superintendent of public instruction, were among the attendants.

THREE ACCIDENT VICTIMS Police Auto Patrol Is Kept Busy Rushing to Hospitals.

Jessie McConnell, 80 years old, 129 Benton street, was struck by a west bound Jefferson avenue car No. 1000 at Jefferson and St. Antoine street, Tuesday afternoon.

He was picked up in an unconscious condition and removed in auto patrol No. 1 to St. Mary's hospital. McConnell, who had been a widow and because of his advanced age his condition is considered serious.

Ed. Rich, 44 years old, 214 Beaubien street, fell on the sidewalk in front of 130 Grand avenue. Tuesday afternoon, while carrying his left hip. He was taken in an auto patrol to St. Mary's hospital.

Samuel C. 33 years old, 25 Lynden street, fell off a coal wagon at the Twelfth street crossing of the Avenue on Tuesday afternoon, sustaining serious injuries to his back. Auto patrol No. 3 took him to Grace hospital.

BULL MOOSE EXPENSE HIGH Committee Is Named to Devise Some Plan of Retrenchment.

Expenses of maintaining the progressive Bull Moose party in Moffat building are beginning to weigh upon the members of the Progressive party, who are holding a meeting to be held in an office in the Home Bank building Tuesday night, to discuss the matter.

A special meeting of the city organization was convened to look over the financial situation and report Friday night.

Trade Interests Manufacturers.

Development of Michigan and Detroit industries under the protective tariff system and its present relation to their future are discussed by a group of manufacturers in the latest issue of the Michigan Manufacturer, which contains a list of the 100 largest and the greatest manufacturing establishments that have been built up in the city and state.

KODAKS AND SUPPLIES BLACKS 156 WOODWARD AVE.

DYNAMO REPAIRING IN MOTOR REPAIRING

Armed Reward—Complaints

GENERAL MACHINE WORK

GENERAL EQUIPMENT REPAIRS

Machinery Sales Co.

16 E. Woodward St., Detroit, Mich.

Main 221.

Correspondingly low rates to certain other points in Alberta and British Columbia.

Up-to-date train service.

Elegant tourist sleepers.

Great Canadian Rockies on your way west.

Grandest scenes in the world.

Great Canadian Rockies on your way west.

Grandest scenes in the world.

Great Canadian Rockies on your way west.

</div