HAWAIIANS TO GIVE CONCERT TOMORROW

'Bird of Paradise' Play Will Render Native Songs at Cafe Beautiful

The Hawaiians, now playing at Hamburger's Majestic theater in Oliver Moroso's production of "The Bird of Paradise," will give their full repertoire of Hawaiian songs at Hamburger's tomorrow afternoon in Cafe Beautiful.

When the production was first put on, here Oliver Moroso sent a man to Hawaii for the express purpose of bringing back the best singers and musicians in the island. Since every native Hawaiian plays and sings, Moroso's representative was able to bring back artists who are equal to the best.

"Tomorrow they will sing 'Aloha,'

"The Warm Springs," "Burning Love," "The Prayer of Death," and the Hawaiian national song, "Aloha," and a number of the land of sun, shine and flowers. They will play their accompaniment on the ukulele, the native Hawaiian instrument.

"I Went to the Orpheum, Elsie

And on the Way There I Noticed Cherry's Credit Store.

"I made up my mind to go up there the next day and see just what sort of a place they have. Besides, I noticed they sold Clothes on Credit, and that appealed to me highly."

"Well, I must say I am surprised at what I found. It is putting it rather mildly. Mercy, Alice, I'm awfully sorry I didn't know about Cherry's sooner. Do you know you can get the sweetest, prettiest clothes up there on Credit? Just a small deposit down and you can have in Easy Payments to suit your purse."

"They not only sell Suits, but the most charming dresses, blouses, silk, satins, skirts and jaunty coats. And such a variety! The most critical dresser can find ample selection up there."

"My! I almost forgot to tell you the neatest part of this story. I bought a splendid blue blouse, and I wanted to wear it today, as a few alterations were necessary. And it fits perfectly! Cherry's are on the second floor, just across from the Hotel at 50 South Broadway. I advise you to go up as soon as you can."—Advertisement.

Lay Costly Golf Course to Lure Men from Tango

FRESNO, Oct. 15.—Rag dancing is mixed up with the Sunnyside rivalry between the Sunnyside Country club and the Riverside Country club, which has reached a new stage with the announcement that the Riverside club has begun to lay out an eighteen-mile golf course, intended to be the best in interior California.

The Sunnyside club allows the Riverside club to use its grounds, forbids its ragging is popular in Fresno society, and the Sunnyside has enjoyed an ascendancy over its rival for many months.

So the Riverside directors planned the eighteen-hole course as a sort of broadside against the Sunnyside and the rag.
