would be escorted to the border in a dignified manner.

Besides Thaw the witnesses today were Henry Johnston, the man who drove Thaw across the border, Octave Nadreau, a waiter who drove him into the Hotel Cadieux at Barford, where Thaw was arrested and the innkeeper himself. Their testimony was unadorned to support the "entering by stealth" charge.

Evelyn in Court.

New York, Sept. 4.—Three $5,000 checks signed by Mrs. Mary C. Thaw, Harry Thaw's mother, figured again today in the bankrupt proceedings involving Evelyn Thaw.

Mrs. Thaw said, when she agreed to bring suit for the annulment of her marriage to Harry Thaw, but later stopped payment on them, although her daughter-in-law, so the latter said, tried to carry out her part of the contract.

To sustain her contention that these checks were not valid, Evelyn Thaw filed today that she had collected them in "two years and years." Her attorney, John Reilly, to whom she finally gave the checks as compensation for services, was equally unscrupulous in getting them cashed.

Mrs. Mary C. Thaw will be called later to tell about property she is said to have turned over to Evelyn.

SEARCHER IS KILLED.

Falls Over Bank While Looking for Deserts—Latter Put Up Fight.

New York Sun Special to The Express. Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 4.—A sergeant of marines is dead, a private seriously injured and another narrowly escaped drowning as a result of a fight in the hills today by two marines who were awaiting transportation to a federal prison as deserters.

The dead man is Sergeant George P. Souther, who fell over an embankment and was killed while searching for the fugitives. Private Loren S. Nichols was attacked by one of the deserters with a hoe and one of his eyes was gouged out.

The search for freedom was made by Charles Sharp and Frederick Schweikert. They were working in a field and was killed while searching for the fugitives. Private Loren S. Nichols was attacked by one of the deserters with a hoe and one of his eyes was gouged out.

"Why is it that the so-called political leaders are so ferocious against me?" Murphy and the chaps that sat down with him at Delmonico's the other night and gossiped and abused me until their faces were red, ready to eat me up, I am told, made their statement.

"And I never did anything to them except what tended to make them look respectable. I suppose the people of the city know very well what the grievance is. I did not turn the city departments over to the spoliation. I did not suffer them to loot the city.

"These miserable political grafters that sat down at Delmonico's, and their associates here and all over the state, now have all the state contracts. The result is the grossest knavery in this state for years. Just look at the highway contracts. The Governor Sulzer broke all of these racially contaminated when the work was to have begun last spring. That is probably their biggest spite against me."

"No wonder they are ferocious against me. The McCooys and the Foleys and the Murphys and the Donahues, and the whole bunch, have had four lean and hungry years."

Three candidates for mayor are in the field, but the political situation is confused. The candidates are the consequence of the ticket to run with Mayor Gaynor under the sign of the shovel and by the attitude of the Independence League. Efforts were made today to learn whether the mayor would accept on his ticket the names of William A. Prendergast and George McAnany, the fusion nominees respectively for controller and president of the board of aldermen but the mayor made no statement in regard to the matter before smiling.

REUNION IN JAMESTOWN

Survivors of 49th Regiment Entertained in That City.

Editorial in The Buffalo Express. Jamestown, Sept. 4.—One of the Buffalo regiments in the Civil War, the 49th New York, held its annual reunion in this city yesterday, with an attendance of some 50 veterans and about 100 members of the families and friends. The regiment was recruited in Western New York and organized at Buffalo on September 17, 1861, by Colonel D. D. Bidwell, and continued in the service until the close of the war.

An incident of the reunion was the presentation to F. E. Farr of Oklahoma of a gold-headed cane by his comrades in recognition of his interest in the regimental association and his frequent trips from the Southwest to the reunions held in Western New York.

Mayor Administers Bitter Verbal Lacing to Political Leaders.

By the Associated Press. New York, Sept. 4.—Mayor Gaynor surprised his friends and political enemies alike today by sailing for Europe on the steamship Baltic. Astonishment that he should leave New York on the 18th, Gaynor said, when she agreed to bring suit for the annulment of her marriage to Harry Thaw, but later stopped payment on them, although his daughter-in-law, so the latter said, tried to carry out her part of the contract.

To sustain her contention that these checks were not valid, Evelyn Thaw filed today that she had collected them in "two years and years." Her attorney, John Reilly, to whom she finally gave the checks as compensation for services, was equally unscrupulous in getting them cashed.

NEAR A VOTE ON TARIFF

Democratic Senate Leaders Will Make Effort to Pass Bill by Saturday Night.

TAKE LAST CAUCUS

Compromise on the Income Tax Rate Expected to be Adopted at Meeting.

A FURTHER CONCESSION

Measure Will Provide for Increased Tax on Large Incomes Demanded by Insurgents.

By the Associated Press. Washington, Sept. 4.—Democratic leaders of the Senate will begin a supreme effort tomorrow to complete the tariff bill and pass it before adjournment on Saturday night. As a part of the programme the Senate tonight adjourned until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and the final session of the Democratic tariff caucus will be held to that hour.

The compromise of the insurgents, which was agreed to by the Senate yesterday, indicates that the criminal proceedings started here last June have been abandoned. Two national associations of manufacturers and wholesalers and hundreds of corporations and individuals from Maine to California are interested in the suit.

MAKE MERRY AT BANQUET

1,000 Spanish War Veterans Feast at Broadway Auditorium.

FIGHT FOR OFFICES

Lively Contests to Mark Election Slated for This Morning.

TO WIND UP TOMORROW

Final Session of National Association Will be Held Saturday Morning.

The big event of the tenth annual encampment of the United States War Veterans yesterday was the banquet in the Broadway Auditorium in the evening. The dinner was a success. The hall was decorated and the speakers' table was on a dias extending the full length of the room.

The toastmaster was Hamilton Ward, past commander-in-chief. Among those who spoke were Congressman Charles E. Smith, of T. C. of Pittsburg, commander-in-chief; Elmer W. Bostick, past commander of the G.A.R.; Charles Orr, commander of Chapin Post of the G.A.R.; Major John D. Howland, past senior vice commander, and Charles R. Miller of Canton, O., past commander-in-chief.

The latest proposal for the income-tax rates, which seemed likely of adoption by the Democratic caucus, would establish the following total tax, including both the normal tax of one per cent and the "additional" tax on large incomes:

One per cent, on incomes of $30,000 to $40,000, two per cent, from $50,000 to $60,000, three per cent, from $50,000 to $75,000, four per cent, from $75,000 to $100,000, five per cent, from $100,000 to $500,000, six per cent, from $500,000 to $1,000,000, seven per cent, above $1,000,000.

The Senate drilled away all day long at paragraphs previously passed over, finally agreeing to most of a Senate bill introduced by Senator Smith, which offered an amendment providing that meats imported from foreign countries must be accompanied by a certificate whose form shall be prescribed by the secretary of agriculture, testifying to the health of the animal and its fitness for human food. After some debate the provision went over until to-morrow.

Two German Aviators Killed.

Germany, Sept. 4.—Two more officers of the German army's flying corps were killed in an aeroplane accident here today. Lieutenant Von Eckendorf and Lieutenant Prinz were testing a new aeroplane when the left wing collapsed while they were at a height of 100 yards. The aviators were thrown to the ground and crushed to death.

Throughout the banquet an orchestra played popular airs. Floyd A. Drake made a hit with the singing of a song written for the occasion by one of the veterans, Alfred Kuhn.

The committee in charge of the arrangements for the dinner was composed of Albert Hahn, chairman; Joseph M. Breck, John W. Metzger, William C. Straus, Fred Lempke, Alfred F. Kuhn, George A. Markham, Herman Myers, John F. Haag and Frederick T. Elbers.

The ladies' auxiliary, which is in joint session, also held its banquet last night at Elmwood Music hall. About 400 women attended.

The most important business of the day was the making of nominations for the election of officers. No business session was held yesterday morning because nearly all of the veterans were anxious to take part in the military parade.

At the afternoon session these men were named for the various offices:

Commander-in-chief, John Lewis Smith and Henry W. Busch; senior vice commander-in-chief, Edgar C. Barker; junior vice commander-in-chief, George A. Leyde of Hawaii; Charles O'Donnell of Cuba and W. W. Dayton of the Philippines; senior general, Herman Burkin, William E. Howard and F. W. Venning; chaplain-in-chief, W. H. Reavy and J. Madison Hale, historian, Edward H. White and William J. Dineen.

Mr. Smith is making an active campaign for the chief office. Barker was ever since he was born at the election of the delegates yesterday.

The election will take place this morning and will probably conclude the business side of the encampment. The final session will be held on Saturday morning. This afternoon the soldiers will go to Niagara Falls and this evening the Military Order of the Serpent has its parade and initiation.
