so has for six months A. J. Smith, formerly connected with the Colorado Springs Fire Department. Mr. Smith, Carl James, secretary and treasurer of the Colorado Almond Co., is capitalized at $15,000. James is a graduate in dairy chemistry in one of the best schools in the country. His wide experience abroad has had great value, setting him up in the almond business. Setting him up with the Colorado Butter Co., of Denver.

Almond Plant.

The new plant is built on the most minute detail. Polished walls and ceilings are of cement or white enamel, and all parts are made of the best material and everything is as light and sanitary as possible. Ventilation is from a modern hospital. Ventilation system of the plant, however, consists of a constant supply of fresh air. The plant is built for the removal of all odors, and throughout every process is made for the most perfect results. Coming in.

ceved on an elevated platform on a Colorado Springs and immediate vicinity.

for the plant.

The equipment includes a large number of large tanks, a large 25 horse press, and a number of smaller tanks which can be used for the production of a number of different products.

Carl James, the new man, is an expert in the almond business.

The plant will be open to the public on May 25th.

The company will also sell fruits,

fruits and fancy candies, and especially dried fruits.

Mr. Smith is a man of experience and knowledge.

The present officers are:

Franklin T. Moller, President.

William H. Derry, Vice President.

James M. McLean, Secretary.

The plant is located in practically all over the mountains and lower portions of the state. The present expansion of the plant will be all associated with the old company, which has always adopted strict and rigid policies and are held in the highest esteem by the public and manufacturers and with whom they do business.
