

JACKSON

Bohemian Brew

New Orleans, La., October 15, 1913.

Mr. Lawrence Fabacher, Pres.,
Jackson Brewing Co., 400 Jefferson St., City:

Dear Sir—

The report of an inspection of your BREWERY on 10-13-13 by inspectors of the City Board of Health and this Board, jointly, for the State Board of Health, is as follows:

Your brewery was found to be in excellent condition, and we hope that it will always be kept so.

Your score is EXCELLENT.

Trusting that we may have your co-operation in our efforts to provide Pure Food, Pure Drugs and Higher Health Standards, I am,

Yours very truly,

OSCAR DOWLING, President.

"Your Score Is Excellent" So Says Dr. Dowling

Long before the present clean-up movement began, our brewery was inspected by the State and City Boards of Health. They found it in an excellent condition of cleanliness. Under superb sanitary conditions, together with improved machinery and the good old-fashioned process of brewing and aging, we produce our

"Celebrated Bohemian Beer"

And those who have tried this superior beverage know that it is made from the purest ingredients. Jackson Beer contains a small percentage of alcohol, which is formed during the process of fermentation—just the proportion needed for the nerves and body. The essence of barley malt and Saazer hops give the body a nutritious nerve food and tonic.
