Maier Table BEER

THE fact that Maier Beer is almost exclusively served at the best clubs, cafes, hotels and homes of Southern California is proof that of all beers at all prices none can compare with Maier Beer for popularity with particular people who have the price to pay for the best there is. But Maier Beer is not a high-priced beer—it costs you no more than any other local brand.

Have a case sent home—order from your dealer. If he can't (or won't) supply you, we will.
