

Jay Davidson Says

JIM GRIFFIN is experiencing the bitter that so inevitably goes with the sweets of a fight referee's existence. He is coming in for considerable criticism for calling the Clabby-Murray scrap a draw the other night, and when he tries to explain his reasons for figuring it a draw his critics take their second wind and when some more...

'SPITTER' REQUIRES ALL OF PITCHER'S TIME IF SUCCESS IS DESIRED

By ED WALSH The White Sox Great Twirler A pitcher when he turns his attention to the spit ball should give up everything else. It is a cruel taskmaster, one requiring a man's attention.

It is my contention that a spit ball pitcher cannot use curves and other kinds of twirling and get the greatest possible success out of his moist delivery. A twirler who depends on a large measure on control and who has only a fair amount of speed rarely makes a success as a spitball pitcher.

$40,000 ASKED FOR DERBY FAVORITE

CHICAGO, April 6.—Jeff Livingston of the City Club, who Saturday telegraphed to Louisville the offer of $40,000 for Old Hennessy, the Kentucky Derby favorite, has received a reply which, as he expressed it, caused him to lose his breath for several minutes.

It would like to have Old Hennessy in my colors for the Derby is a good thing, for I saw him today. "But what about the $200,000 price of old Hennessy?" Livingston asked. "I have not decided yet whether I will continue the negotiation," Livingston replied by telegraph from H. C. Armstrong & Co. in Louisville.
