THREE ANSWERS

By JANE M'LEAN.

What is Life? The minstrel plays it
On a reed of sweetest strain:
"Life is song, that wakes to music
Joy or grief or depths of pain.
Nature trills it in her bird calls,
Crooms it in her tuneful rain."

What is Life? The mystic sees it
In his crystal: "Life is fate
Looking just around the corner,
Coming early, coming late.
Laws are fixed and Fate is changeless.
Watch the stars and dream and wait."

What is Life? The man who lived it
Gives his answer, and he saith:
"Life is love, a hand that beckons
Through the dusk, a long drawn breath
And a kiss whose warmth we carry
Lingering with us into death."

Do Not Let This Christmas Pass Without a Piano or Player-Piano in Your Home

Now, when you can do so well at this sale and with no first payment to make, you can get your piano without interfering with your other Christmas plans and begin to make payments in January. We deliver the piano or player at once. A piano is the "one grand present" for all of the family. When you buy this kind of a present you share in the pleasure for years to come.

OUR CHRISTMAS PIANO SALE

Offers you lower prices, better terms, more protection, unlimited guarantee for first-class, high-grade instruments of best quality that you should make your selection right now from our stock of

200 Standard Pianos and Player-Pianos

Read every word we say about this sale and you will know why we can offer pianos and player-pianos at such extremely low prices, and at Christmas time, too—a condition brought about by the world war will save Christmas buyers more dollars than they ever expected. This sale is a real genuine saving opportunity which has never been equaled for money saving advantages. It is an opportunity for two hundred Christmas buyers to get two hundred bargains. Will you be one of them? In this stock of pianos are used, shopworn, returned from agencies, exchanged and new pianos. The most of the stock consists of returned from agencies pianos—the choicest pick of the factory—pianos used as demonstrators and practically as good as new. In fact, you cannot tell most of them from brand new pianos.

No First Payment--Begin to Pay in January

The reason for these low prices—the excitement and unrest caused by the world war in the business world had its effect on buyers in small cities, and small piano dealers were, in many instances, compelled to give up the business or discontinue the piano business and seek other lines—with the result that we had the stock from thirty discontinued agencies on hand. With the return of prosperity (and we are pleased to say it is back with greater activity than ever), we decided to dispose of the remaining agency stock regardless of former prices. We must sell off stock which should have been sold in the early months of 1915—and to accomplish this we placed all the returned from agencies, used, exchanged and new pianos on sale at prices that are compelling. To convince yourself, all you need do is step into our store and see the pianos offered at the above prices—every piano guaranteed.

To Out-of-Town Buyers—We allow railroad fare both ways, within 100 miles. If you cannot come, write. Store open every evening until Christmas.
