

OLD FOLKSNEED CASCARETS FOR LIVER, BOWELS

SALTS, CALOMEL, PILLS ARE IN BOWELS LIKE TORRENTS AFTER IN NOSTRILS. ENJOY LIFE! DON'T STAY BALLOONED. HEADACHE AND CONSTIPATED.

Use a 10-cent box. What will you pay for the bowels more regular than the one that comes from Cascarets? It is natural as to be for old people who walk away. For you is better as active as youth. The cascades are less drastic. Add the bowels are washed.

Be all the people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to add work to one's work as to add work to one's work. The bowels are what to be used. This is the best of all. You can't get a box for less than 10 cents. You can't get a box for less than 10 cents. You can't get a box for less than 10 cents.

ACROSS THE FOOTLIGHTS SOME VAUDEVILLE. Big Audience Sets Seal of Approval on Park Theatre Bill. Vaudeville, such vaudeville as Taunton long has been a stranger to, drew a big house to the Park Theatre last evening. It is a fact far-fetched statement to make that the result of the efforts of the management were as fine an entertainment from an artistic, musical, sensational or entertainment standpoint as has been offered to a Taunton audience in the history of the theatre. Everyone knows that there are a many varieties of vaudeville as there are of the celebrated pickles of the world, with the exception that while all pickles are good all vaudeville is not. The United Show company, from its central office in New York, direct to the fortunes of many houses, and therefore is able to command features which ordinarily never would have touched Taunton, because of their being no house of the standard played by these high-class and high-priced acts. It is a moderate statement to make that the feature act of last evening, the Colonial Belles, alone receive more salary for three days than the ordinary vaudeville show costs for the week. Speaking of the Colonial Belles—well there is an act. One patron who evidently knew it asked at the box office if the Belles were really on the bill. They were on the bill, seven of them, in an offering which combined a quaint costume, sparkling eyes and pretty faces and a rare instrumental and vocal treat. Seven young ladies, six musicians and one soloist. It was a musical treat, an artistic delight to the eye and ear. It was a sample of what the Park theatre management promises as a steady diet. Elsie Marrette, a beautiful singer, whose Boston successes have made her well known in Taunton, was the guest of the success of the bill. Miss Marrette charmed the Taunton audience with a beautiful voice. As a pupil of leading the singing she developed an unusually luscious voice with a big range. She also gave the feminine
