

FRIENDS TELL JURY THAW IS SANE

Sheila, Custodian 16 Months, 'Lived, Ate, Slept With Him; He's Rational.' 'GENTLEMAN,' SAYS WIFE 'Never Drank.' 'Hotel Keeper,' 'Good Fisherman,' 'Deputy,' 'Changed,' Reporter.

NEW YORK, June 25.—The jury in the case of the trial of William James Thaw, for the murder of Dr. George H. Brown, returned its verdict at 10 o'clock this morning.

Thaw's defense attorneys, who had argued that their client was sane at the time of the shooting, were successful in convincing the jury that Thaw was sane.

Thaw's wife, Sheila, testified that she had lived with her husband for 16 months before the shooting. She said that he was a rational man and that she had never seen him drunk.

Thaw's defense attorneys presented evidence that Thaw had been a hotel keeper, a fisherman, and a deputy before the shooting.

Thaw's defense attorneys argued that Thaw was sane at the time of the shooting and that he should be held responsible for his actions.
