MACHINISTS UNION ENJOYS FINE CONCERT

Before an audience that filled the spacious Social Club hall, local 274 of the International Association of Machinists rendered one of the finest concerts witnessed in this city in some time. The audience, made up of more than four hundred people, including members of other labor organizations of the city with several prominent visitors from out of town, filled the big hall and the C. A. hall had to be utilized for the serving of refreshments, consisting of coffee, sandwiches and cigars.

The concert program consisting of 16 numbers, was rendered in a very pleasing manner and the artists were obliged to respond to several encores. A trio consisting of Mr. Goddard, violin; Mr. Brooks, cello, and Miss Teasdale, piano, rendered the "Spirit Bandy," in two parts, which was very pleasing and well received and they were forced to respond to several encores. The male quartette of Taunton's "old favorite," Jason Hayward was also well received, their opening vocal solos were rendered by Dr. F. M. Wilbur, Charles Brown and John Hanshal, treasurer of the Machinists' local. Mr. Hanshall's rendition of "Old Black Joe" in comic mood was very amusing to the large audience. The pianoing of James Ambrose, a local performer, also made a big hit with the audience, as did the piano solos of Miss Dorothy Darfis and Miss Teasdale acted as accompanists for the vocalists.

Organizer Joseph H. Gilmour was present and delivered one of his stirring addresses, full of his attempts to address gatherings of machinists in the city of Worcester and of being arrested three times for exercising his right, as an American citizen of free speech. He said that the first time he was arrested he was thrown in with bad men and fined ten dollars—five dollars for disturbing the peace and five dollars for obstructing traffic—from which he appealed, but the case was not heard in supreme court. The second and third times he was arrested he said, he was brought into court and fined ten dollars. Today, he said, he can go before any of the factories in the city of Worcester and speak to the employes unmolested. Mr. Gilmour told of the success with which he has been meeting in organization work in the various cities of New England and concluded his remarks by urging the men present to support the bill which comes before the voters of the city of Taunton at the city election to give the firemen one day's rest after three in every five. He said the bill has been made a labor issue by the highest labor tribunal in the state—the Massachusetts Federation of Labor. He said that the machinists of Taunton had recently gained important concessions and he requested them to remember during their leisure hours their public servants, the firemen—who are on duty for 24 consecutive hours, every alternate days. Remember boys," he said in conclusion, "that this is only a humane measure that we are asking you to support."

During the evening Edward Taylor, a member of the Machinists' union was presented with a handsome solid gold watch charm, emblematic of the Machinists' union, by his associates, Organizer Gilmour making the presentation speech. In the course of his remarks in making the presentation, Mr. Gilmour stated that his only regret was that the charm was to be attached to a chain having on the other end an "Ingersoll watch," but Mr. Taylor assured Mr. Gilmour that this would not always be the case. Mr. Taylor responded in a fitting manner and thanked his associates for their generous gift. Mr. Taylor was considered the hardest worker for the success of the local union and brought in the largest number of new members.

An epidemic of measles is affecting school attendance and several new cases have developed in the last few days.

EAT A SQUARE MEAL AND NOT FEAR INDIGESTION

There are hundreds of people in Taunton who were not the least bit surprised when they read in the "Gazette" that A. J. Barker Co. are selling Mi-o-na on a guarantee to refund the money in case it did not relieve. This remarkable dyspepsia remedy will relieve the worst case of indigestion, headache, dizziness, or the general played-out condition that affects every one suffering with stomach trouble. Mi-o-na does not simply relieve, it aims to cure.

A. J. Barker Co. can tell you of many well known people in this city whom this remedy has restored to health, often after they have tried many other methods of treatment with little or no benefit. No other dyspepsia remedy has made so large a percentage of cures as Mi-o-na. It is so large that A. J. Barker Co. can stand ready to refund the price to any customer whom it does not help.

The best kind of advertising is the praise of a pleased customer, and there are hundreds in Taunton today praising Mi-o-na because it does what it is advertised to do. A few months ago they could eat nothing without wondering what the result would be. Since using Mi-o-na they eat what they want and when they want with no fear of suffering. This medicine comes in the form of a small tablet and is very pleasant to take. It speedily and permanently relieves almost all forms of stomach trouble and is the only one sold under a positive guarantee without any restriction, to refund the money if it does not relieve. This is a good time to get well and you ought to take advantage of A. J. Barker Co's offer. Adv.

BREAK WITH HINKEY.

Yale's Football Situation Becomes Tense Today.

(By United Press.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 1.—The Yale football situation—the worst in her history—was tense today, following the reported open break between Head Coach Frank Hinkey and Captain Alec Wilson, and the latter's action in summoning Tom Shevlin, famous old Eli star, from Minneapolis to take charge of the squad.

It is fairly well known about the campus that Wilson and Hinkey have been in almost constant clash since the defeat of the Blue by Virginia. Then came a one-point victory over Lehigh, followed by defeats by W. & J. and Saturday's defeat by Colgate was the last straw.

All sorts of rumors were afloat today. One was that Hinkey would resign; others that he would stay and fight it out, none of which could be confirmed.

To Drop Penn State.

(By United Press.)

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 1.—Penn State will be dropped from Harvard's football schedule next year, it was learned on good authority today.

COLGATE TEAM A CANDIDATE FOR HIGH HONOR

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Coach Larry Bankart's Colgate eleven was crowding Princeton for football honors in the same class with Cornell. When the up-staters defeated the army team in a decisive manner there was a general sitting up and taking notice throughout the east. Saturday's defeat of Yale, which was even more decisive and clean-cut, has put her right out in the front rank of eligibles.

Colgate hasn't been scored on this year in five games—the only eleven east of the Rockies and north of Mason and Dixon's line that has such a record. Moreover, she has rolled up a total of 222 points, an average of more than 44 to the game. Certainly such a record places the Colgaters on an equal plane with Princeton, Cornell and Pitt for honors in the east.

The football situation should be clarified to a great extent this week with Princeton meeting Harvard. While the Crimson has had a disastrous season, for her, she still is possessed of a kick in either hoof, and will give the Tigers the acid test. Eddie Mahan alone is enough to give a team trouble. The game also will settle to a great extent the 1915 kicking honors. Mahan and Tibbott stand out as the two greatest of the season and their individual battle will be fully as spectacular as the game itself.

All that deep blue at New Haven is not colloquially "blue" by the shade of Yale's football hopes. Tom Shevlin and with Yale grads still their rounsters, is due back in town today to assume the dictator's chair of Eli football. It remains to be seen whether he can lick anything into 'em. Next Saturday the Blue meets Brown; the next Saturday Princeton, and it's horrible to contemplate what the Tigers will do to Yale if there is not a sudden improvement.

Yale grads are recalling the 1910 situation when, after a disastrous start, Shevlin came back and whipped a team into shape that beat Princeton and tied Harvard.
