'EAT PEANUTS,' RED CROSS TO PLEAD AT FAIR

Concession for Sale of 'Goobers' Presented to Tucson Chapter by Fair Directors; Sports Program Ready

"Eat peanuts for the Red Cross, eat for the soldiers in the hospital," will be the appeal of the pretty Red Cross girl peddlers at the Southern Arizona Fair Nov. 3rd and 4th, it was announced yesterday.

The peanut concession was presented to the Red Cross unit yesterday. It was the most valuable concession of the whole show but it was given free to the hard working unit of Tucson.

The girl peanut peddlers in their white Red Cross uniforms will be everywhere on the grounds the two days of the fair, with the result that the nickels should be taken out of circulation in this district in the sale of the ground nuts.

Plans formed yesterday and announced by the management include a big parade on Saturday, beginning at 10 a. m., headed by the police, Indians in war-dress, Arizona and New Mexico football teams, and cowboys.

The parade will start at the El Paso and Southwestern depot and proceed up Congress street to the armory. The Indians will then go direct to the grounds for the big barbecue at which they will be the guests of Tucson and the Fair directors.

This will go down in the history of the city as the first hospitality on a big scale ever shown the Papagoes.

The sports will begin at 1 o'clock sharp, in the following order:

Indian pony race.
Half mile race, for Indian boys.
"Gome" race, one mile for Indian boys.
Indian Golf, or "Manaya", for Indian women.
Field and track sports—University boys.
Football, Arizona-New Mexico.
Balloon ascencion.

All of the prizes for exhibits will be awarded Saturday.

In this connection, there will be the biggest show the city has ever seen of stock gathered by Professor Williams of the University. Entries have been made for horses, mules, swine, cattle, and sheep. This end of the exhibit will outclass any two shows in the southwest.

On November 4th, the cowboy sports will be held. These events are:

Calf tieing—Prescott rules.
200 yard race—Cow ponies.
Cigar race.
Quarter mile race—Cow ponies.
Pulling the rooster.
Bronco busting.
Best reined cow pony.
Shoe race.
Balloon—aerial gymnastics.

Ben Johnson, farm manager of the Tucson Farms company, hit a line of hard luck yesterday, when just as he was lining up the agricultural exhibitions, he was stricken with appendicitis and had the choice of going to the hospital and being operated on or fighting the ailment until after the Fair.

He took the former chance and last night was reported to be recovering from the operation at St. Mary's hospital. He hopes to be well enough to hobble out again before the Fair is on.

"It is sure tough luck," he said yesterday. "Just when I got the exhibits started. I wish farmers will go ahead and line up for a big display for me while I am on my back."

Fred W. Taylor, of the Tucson Farms company, has taken up Johnson's work enthusiastically.

Professor Williams yesterday sent a letter to the stockmen of the district urging exhibits, declaring that they should send only the best, since the competition was going to make a record for keenness this year.

In connection with the stock show the directors gave out the following description of entries yesterday:

"L. H. Manning is going to show his Champion Hereford herd of cattle, which will include, one aged bull, two aged cows, a yearling bull, and some calves. Besides these, he may exhibit some Duroc-Jersey hogs. Frank Webb promises a dairy herd that will be hard to beat. The Flowing Wells Co. has always displayed their cattle in the past and they may be counted on to win some of the coveted prizes.

"According to present indications, there will be as good a hog show as that shown at the state fair. Nathan Kendall will be represented by a splendid herd of Duroc-Jerseys, including the Grand Champion Duroc-Jersey boar at the last state fair. This is probably the best Duroc-Jersey boar in the state. Al Donau is also going to display some of his grand champions. The University may be counted on to compete in most of the Duroc classes. Besides these other breeds will be well represented by entries by newcomers on the Tucson Farms land and other hog enthusiasts.

"Those who come to the Tucson fair will be interested in learning to what extent stock production has taken hold of the valleys around Tucson. It is most unfortunate that the range stock is so wild and distributed so widely that it is difficult to show.

"No word has come yet from the setters around Binghampton and many others with excellent livestock. These people are certain to exhibit their animals and this will mean the best show that has yet been staged at the Southern Arizona Fair."

Great Wortham Shows Will Arrive Today for One Week's Carnival

The "carnival spirit" will be in evidence in Tucson Monday, when the Great Wortham Shows open on South Stone avenue under the auspices of the Tucson Central Trades Council. The shows will arrive this evening and will begin unloading Monday morning. By evening the carnival grounds will be ready for the crowds.

It requires a special train of 25 cars to transport the Wortham shows, which comprise 300 people, 20 shows, 20-piece concert band, free acts, and 100 other amusements. Two free concerts on the down-town streets will be given daily, at 2 and 7 p. m.

Barney Oldfield is a regular member of the show troupe — but not the human Barney. This is a Simian Barney, a monkey that drives a miniature speed ship around a saucer track at a rate of sixty miles an hour. The human Barney has nothing to be ashamed of in his namesake's speed qualities.

Other features are Kilby Bros., trained animal show and one-ring circus, monkey speedway, Doc. Jones' Side Show, great war spectacle, and water show featuring oJsephine Fleming the great fancy diver and swimmer.

WORTH THEIR WEIGHT IN GOLD

No man can do his best when suffering from backache, rheumatic pains, swollen joints, sore muscles or other symptoms of kidney trouble. B. H. Stone, 840 N. 2nd St., Reading, Pa., writes: "I contracted a most severe case of kidney trouble. I gradually grew worse and for months was unable to attend to business. I began to use Foley Kidney Pills and soon found the pains were gone and I have had no aches since. They have been worth their weight in gold to me." For sale by Martin Drug Co.—Advertisement.
