

ps
th Cup

y Bond
h Cav-
D).

Oct. 20.—
valry, and
n Douglas,
y in com-
Capt. V.
was com-
absence of
y to visit
Tenth cav-
er, for the
scriptions
Dixon was
t and the
h cavalry,
om district
n the list, ed for the d men of mount will
the cam-

ucson, has
with the se of the

gun troop,
valry, left
Utah, in
alien en-
s post by
days ago,
livered to e still in n of their

rn, James
irst Class
Edwards,
al enlisted
dav from
e detailed
n at this

artermas-
y at this
n ordered

who has
o station,
El Paso,

artermas-
for Fort

rst Lieut.
sitors in
a squad-
cavalry.
ly a ser-
y. Both
rom the
at Fort

to croup
gh Rem-
es on be
ed direc-

Made by
El Paso Brewing Association
Successors.

Your Enjoyment

of

Bravo

Is Full and Complete

It Is Wholesome, Pure and Appetizing——It Is Indeed "The Drink Supreme"

Some night when your feel "all fagged out" and "things have all gone wrong"—just sit down at your table and have your wife serve you with a cold bottle of "BRAVO"—Then see how quickly the world will brighten up!

For sale at all good grocers, restaurants, cafes and soda fountains.

Myers, Darling & Hinton Co.
Distributors

FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Second avenue North of University avenue. A. Binkhorst, Minister.

World and in Christ."
The music for this service consist of:
1. Organ Voluntary, Nocturne. (Chopin)

Mrs. J. P. Freeman with cello obligato by Mrs. William Seineke.
At the 6:30 Christian Endeavor meet-