CAMPAIGN IS BEGUN FOR REGULAR ARMY AND C. N. G. RECRUITS

State Council of Defense Takes Up Work In Accordance With President's Proclamation—After "Recruiting Week" Ends, Specialized Drive to Bring Two Militia Regiments Up to War Strength Will Start—Home Guard Helping.

The county chairmen and chairmen of the publicity and military and naval affairs committees of the Connecticut State Council of Defense, who are in charge of plans for a recruiting campaign in Connecticut which is intended to bring the state's two National Guard regiments up to war strength and to raise Connecticut's quota for the regular army, have decided that the proclamation by President Wilson, designating the week of June 23 to 30 as recruiting week for the regular army, shall be construed as tantamount to an order from the nation's commander-in-chief and that, in accordance with it, all the council's energies along recruiting lines during the period designated shall be devoted to securing enlistments for the regular army. Following this, a specialized drive for National Guard recruits will be begun and will be kept up continually until both regiments of the Connecticut National Guard are at full war strength.

The President's proclamation calls for one week of strenuous work to procure 70,000 men throughout the country for the regular army. The defense council's committee chairmen in charge of the recruiting drive will attempt during this week to aid the regular army recruiting officers in the state to secure Connecticut's share of these men. The number of men wanted from Connecticut for the regular army is just above 1,200.

As soon as recruiting week, as proclaimed by President Wilson, is ended, the drive for National Guard recruits will begin and nothing short of complete success will satisfy those in charge. For the First Regiment, Hartford county will be called upon to provide 187 men, Tolland county, 40 men, Middlesex county, 93 and Windham county, 118. Because of the fact that enlistments average only about one out of every two applicants, the number of applications for enlistment in each county should be twice the number of recruits needed. This is also true in the counties where the Second Regiment recruits will be sought. For this regiment, the county quotas are assigned as follows: New Haven county, 226; Fairfield county, 154; New London county, 63, and Litchfield county, 46.

In the National Guard recruiting campaign, the Connecticut Home Guard, under the direction of the military emergency board, is co-operating. Every Home Guardsman has been urged by the military emergency board to make a definite effort to secure one recruit for the National Guard. It is expected that this organization will prove a large help in the work to bring the two infantry regiments up to war strength.

In the meantime, the special C. N. G. recruiting activities of Colonel Richard J. Goodman of the First Regiment and Colonel Ernest L. Isbell of the Second Regiment will continue.

NEW COTTAGES AT WEEKAPAUG

(Special to The Courant.)
Weekapaug, R. I., June 21.

Weekapaug is busily engaged in preparing for the season which the continued warm weather in this section is hastening. A number of cottagers have arrived and others have servants and workmen busy preparing the summer residences for early openings. Weekapaug Inn announced its official opening for June 23 and the Stillman House and the Rock Haven expect to be ready for business soon. Weekapaugites are much interested this season in a new summer colony which is being planned and executed on the sand dunes west of Weekapaug. Two cottages are already well under way and many more are to be erected. The exclusiveness and high standard which Weekapaug has always encouraged in its residences is to be insisted upon here. The colony is being promoted by Harvey Perry and Clifford Campbell of Westerly and it is to be known as the "Weekapaug Dunes." The two cottages now in process of building are owned by Clifford Campbell and Frank Sherman, both Westerly business men. It is prophesied that the line of cottages between Pleasant View and Weekapaug will soon be continuous if the present building boom is a symptom.

Mrs. M. H. Hapgood of Hartford spent Wednesday and Thursday of this week at Weekapaug. She was registered at the Rock Haven.

Mrs. W. W. Savage and family of Wethersfield have engaged the Hapgood cottage for the season. Mrs. Savage's sister, Miss Robbins, is expected to be with the family for the summer season.

Mrs. George H. Freeman with her family has arrived from Troy, N. Y., and has opened her cottage, Spur Rock. Miss Dorothy Freeman has been entertaining Miss Inez Harrison of Pawtucket for the past two weeks.

Miss C. A. Brainerd and her sister of Middletown arrived Wednesday at the Potter cottage, where as is their custom, they will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bennett of Albany have come to spend the summer at Weekapaug.

Mrs. Robert English and family of Hartford, spent a part of the week at their cottage here. Mrs. Ferdinand Gildersleeve was also a member of the party.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Russ and family of Greenwick, were early arrivals this season at Weekapaug. Their cottage was opened June 1.

Mrs. H. Bullis Kiser of Spokane, Wash., is visiting Mrs. Jeanette Munkittrick, who has arrived from her winter home in New York to spend several months here.

AVON.

W. Z. Cowles is ill at his home.

Miss Olive Lord is visiting at W. H. Hadsell's, where she will spend the remainder of the month of June.

The Children's Sunday exercises will be held at the East Avon Church this morning. Rev. C. P. Croft of Westogue will administer the rite of baptism. The evening service will consist of an illustrated lecture on birds.

The Avon Red Cross has decided to take up the making of a "nine men hospital box," and will begin the work at once.

J. W. Alsop, who has been ill for several weeks with pneumonia, is reported to be improving, but is still confined to bed.

Plans are under way to secure the services of Mr. Light agricultural instructor in the Simsbury High School, to have oversight of the garden work in Avon during the summer.

SUFFIELD.

Dealers Agree Not to Sell Fireworks.

The selectmen of Suffield and several of the surrounding towns in a recent conference voted to request dealers in fireworks not to sell firecrackers and other explosives this year. Selectman Seymour has called on all the dealers in this town and all have agreed to cut out the sale of fireworks for this year. There has been some agitation in regard to a safe and sane celebration in town this year, and many are of the opinion that this is not the year for public jollifications.

The funeral of Oscar J. Hazard was held at his home on South Main street yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Kenneth C. MacArthur officiated. The bearers were Raymond Hazard of Hartford, Frank Callin of Rockville and Howard Prout and Charles Prout of this place. Burial was in the family lot in the old cemetery at the Center.

Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin S. King in Suffield, their daughter, Helen Elizabeth, became the wife of Frederick Thomas Underwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Underwood of Worcester. Rev. O. Russ Judd, pastor of the Episcopal Church of Thompsonville, officiated. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Bertha King. The best man was Arthur Underwood of Worcester, a brother of the bridegroom. Miss Ella Woodworth of Suffield was flower girl. The bride wore a gown of white georgette crepe, over white satin, with veil caught with rose buds. She carried a shower bouquet of bridal roses. The maid of honor wore a gown of white crepe de chine and carried a bouquet of pink sweet peas. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Underwood will be at home at No. 112 Pearl street, Thompsonville.

The Hartford County League has listed a number of farm hands, both experienced and green, who can be obtained at wages from $20 to $35 a month and board. Detailed information can be obtained from S. R. Spencer of this place or J. D. Phelps of Windsor Locks, agents of the league.

The bridges of the town have been put into shape in order to comply with the new law which goes into effect July 1. Many of the small bridges have been reinforced with concrete slabs from six to sixteen inches thick, which will be more durable than planking.

Mrs. Charles Whittemore has returned to her home here for the summer. William H. Wilson, who runs the farm and who has been living in the house, will move soon. Mr. Wilson is at present employed by the Aetna Life Insurance Company in Hartford and may remove with his family to Hartford later.

The children of the Center School will give a musicale in the Congregational Church Friday evening. This is to take the place of the play that had been planned.

The Wide Awake Club held a strawberry supper in the club rooms Thursday for the benefit of the Red Cross Society.

Miss Christine Nelson, a teacher in the Capen School for Girls in Northampton, Mass., is home for the summer vacation.

Those who were honored last Tuesday evening at the past masters' night by receiving jewels were as follows: Albert A. Brown, Clarence D. Burbank, Allen P. Phillips, Elmer H. Rhaum, William J. Wilson, J. Edgar Phelps, Charles R. Latham, Egerton Hemenway and Herbert E. Davis.

Paul Goldstein was arrested yesterday by Policeman J. H. Moriarty, charged with violation of a traffic ordinance. Policeman G. M. Cadwell left printed slips in automobiles registered as Connecticut 5089 and 50471, notifying the owners to be in court tomorrow morning, on the same charge.

Machine Gun Company Retires Before Doughty Company G.

BATTLE FOUGHT ON BASEBALL DIAMOND.

Push For Recruits Brings Eight In—Machine Gun Popular.

Baseball made its debut among the military of the city yesterday when teams from the Machine Gun Company and Company G crossed bats on the field of glory, the diamond in Goodwin Park. In years gone by there has been a military league with five or six teams, but this summer the international match with Germany has scattered the companies of the First Infantry from Danbury to Willimantic and there is no league. Company G took the Machine Gun into camp, 16 to 3. The scorer became exhausted and there is no box score, but a promise of better things today, when the Machine Gun will operate against Company M, at 2 this afternoon. The gunners say that the encounter yesterday was merely practice and that they will trim M today.

Captain Amos Beecher of Company M was umpire yesterday, it being the theory that only a captain was adequate for that responsibility. Corporal Day was pitcher and Private Roselle and First Sergeant Barrows catchers for the gunners. Mayo and Coleman were the battery for Company G.

Strength Report.

The following figures are compiled from the consolidated morning report of yesterday:—

Company E of New Britain noses out Company H of Hartford by one man in the race for first place. H is the only line company from Hartford which has a high stand. The Machine Gun Company has a fine showing, but is not a letter company. It is within six men of its required war strength.

It is hoped that the regiment will be brought to war strength by July 12, when it is believed that orders for the taking of men by the selective draft may be issued. The command is 797 enlisted men shy of the war strength.

Octet For Regiment.

The following were taken into the First Regiment yesterday:—

Walter T. Sullivan, Charles E. Adams, Samuel F. Hopley and William H. Bulkeley, all of Hartford, assigned to the Machine Gun Company.

Louis W. Frechette of Moosup, to Company L.

Charles L. Blanchard and Clifford L. Monroe, both of Bristol, to Company D.

Cornelius J. Daniels, Beacon Falls, to Company D.

The rejections were six.

William H. Bulkeley is a son of John C. Bulkeley and a grandson of the late William H. Bulkeley, formerly lieutenant-governor. He is a grandson of former Governor Morgan G. Bulkeley. His home is in West Hartford.

Hartley, Wesleyan, '17, has applied to join the Machine Gun Company.

George B. Thayer was among the six rejected yesterday. He is over regulation age and is under height. He was found to be physically fit.

Picket Line Goes East.

The old familiar tents of the Signal Company have been struck and the picket line has gone east. The horses are now grazing contentedly on the river bank, more reconciled to the water than the Municipal Art Society is. Men of the company will saddle some of the best mounts today and exercise them in West Hartford.

In New Hampshire.

Captain Edward C. Farrington, regimental adjutant, started at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon for Westport, N. H., there to spend ten days.

Notes.

The weekly inspection of the parade camp units took place yesterday.

A number of the men in camp are studying French with an eye to a future in France. There is a myth that a certain player in the band can speak five tongues.

Kent S. Kirkby, a former member of the Ambulance Company, now a student in the Plattsburg training camp, was a visitor in camp last week. He was down from Plattsburg for a day to attend the Trinity commencement.

Every tent in the Machine Gun Company street has a tent floor. The mounted orderly section of the Headquarters Company has such floors. Very few of the other pyramidal tents in camp have tent floors.

Private Dennis Cambouris of the Machine Gun Company is transferred to Company F, for which he is to be a cook.

DO NOT FORGET NEW ENGLAND BEER AND ALE

We did not suppose you would forget, but this is our last chance, through the newspapers, to tell you that whatever happens to remember that the best and the purest beer and ale made in Connecticut is brewed by us. Well meaning people have made it impossible for the New England Brewing Company to continue advertising in the newspapers. This has been brought about through a long series of misrepresentations. The New England Brewing Company has had many thousands of dollars invested in Hartford for many years. It has had and still has a big payroll, its employees are good citizens, it has paid more taxes of various kinds than any other business, and some of the best men and women in the state drink the beer and the ale brewed by us. But recent legislation has made it impossible for the newspapers to accept our advertising after July 1. This is, therefore, our last chance to speak to our thousands of customers through the newspapers.

We wish first of all to extend our hearty thanks for the generous patronage of years, a patronage that has developed the New England Brewing Company into the largest and best equipped plant of its kind in the state. People learned long ago that the beer and the ale brewed by us was superior to any other. If better beer or ale could be brewed we would have made it—but it could not. Our beer and ale is a food and a necessity in thousands of households. If it wasn't we would have been out of business long ago. We will not be able to tell you anything further about it through the newspapers after July 1. But we are sure of one thing: The reputation which our beer enjoys throughout this and other states is so great that whether we advertise it or not, the sale will continue to be large. People will not forget the efforts we have made to place in their hands the finest beer and ale obtainable, and they will continue to drink it just the same. We will assure all our customers that the same careful methods will be used in the future as in the past and we will contniue to supply our beer and ale as of old. There is nothing more refreshing this hot weather than our ale, or beer. Fourth of July is coming and you will certainly want a supply for that great holiday, for you know that

The Fourth Without New England Beer,
Is Like A Race Without A Cheer.

We trust that people generally will take a more sane view of this liquor question in the future than they have in the past. There are no states in the Union which are so-called prohibition states that are showing good results from that law. All through the South liquor is being sold Unlawfully. It is being peddled about in old wagons loaded with hen coops; liquor is found in all sections, and the people are not satisfied with the immoderate restrictions put upon their liberties. The moderate use of liquor is perfectly legitimate and orderly. See to it that radical people do not take away your right to exercise that liberty. The brewing business should not be outlawed any more than any other proper business. It will not be if people stop to consider the afcts and to guide themselves by the results in other states of the Union.

The New England Brewing Company is one of the business institutions of this city. It has paid many hundreds of thousands of dollars into the city's industrial life. It will continue to do so for years to come. We hope that all our old friends will continue to stand by us in the future as they have in the past. And always remember that whenyou want good beer, beer that isn't equalled anywhere else in the state—call for and be sure you obtain the New England Beer and Ale.

THE NEW ENGLAND BREWING CO.
