

MRS. GILLIGAN TO GO ON WITNESS STAND

Witness Stand
 Mrs. Gilligan, who was arrested last week on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of her husband, will go on the witness stand today in the trial of her husband, James Gilligan, for the same crime. Mrs. Gilligan is charged with having furnished her husband with a gun which he used to kill his wife's brother-in-law, John J. Gilligan, on June 1, 1916.

James Gilligan
 James Gilligan, 45, of 123 North Main street, was arrested last week on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of his brother-in-law, John J. Gilligan, on June 1, 1916. He is charged with having furnished his brother-in-law with a gun which he used to kill him.

John J. Gilligan
 John J. Gilligan, 45, of 123 North Main street, was arrested last week on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of his brother-in-law, John J. Gilligan, on June 1, 1916. He is charged with having furnished his brother-in-law with a gun which he used to kill him.

John J. Gilligan
 John J. Gilligan, 45, of 123 North Main street, was arrested last week on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of his brother-in-law, John J. Gilligan, on June 1, 1916. He is charged with having furnished his brother-in-law with a gun which he used to kill him.

John J. Gilligan
 John J. Gilligan, 45, of 123 North Main street, was arrested last week on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of his brother-in-law, John J. Gilligan, on June 1, 1916. He is charged with having furnished his brother-in-law with a gun which he used to kill him.

John J. Gilligan
 John J. Gilligan, 45, of 123 North Main street, was arrested last week on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of his brother-in-law, John J. Gilligan, on June 1, 1916. He is charged with having furnished his brother-in-law with a gun which he used to kill him.

John J. Gilligan
 John J. Gilligan, 45, of 123 North Main street, was arrested last week on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of his brother-in-law, John J. Gilligan, on June 1, 1916. He is charged with having furnished his brother-in-law with a gun which he used to kill him.

John J. Gilligan
 John J. Gilligan, 45, of 123 North Main street, was arrested last week on a charge of being an accessory to the murder of his brother-in-law, John J. Gilligan, on June 1, 1916. He is charged with having furnished his brother-in-law with a gun which he used to kill him.

A. Katten & Son
 H. O. F. Key Coat Two Piece Suits to Order and Overcoats, $25.00 to $35.00

Why I Drink Beer

"—because I've found that after the nervous tension of a day's work there is no better relaxation than a glass of good beer. The health elements contained in the barley and hops, in their appropriate form, have a soothing effect on the nerves."

Business men who take their daily drink of PRIVATE SEAL enjoy it and feel the benefit of its tonic properties. It is good and substantial—the best thing in every bottle as good as the best. You, too, will enjoy its delicious, refreshing flavor.

PRIVATE SEAL contains the maximum of malt and food value—more than any other. "The Stronger You" comes from your daily "GULCH". See this on label over P. O. N.

PRIVATE SEAL

The Pilsener
 The Pilsener

The Brew for You

The Few of Many

Only a small percentage of the hams and bacon produced at our plants are eligible to the Puritan label.

Puritan Hams and Bacon

They must be young, smooth, white, thin skinned—firm, finely grained, tender meat, to deserve the mark which informs those who would discriminate.

Just ask for Puritan.

"The Taste Test"

THE CUDAHY PACKING COMPANY
 T. H. Wain, Branch Manager
 43 North Main Street
 Telephone 1-2422, 1-2423

