

CREEDS AS ONE MEMORIAL DAY

Detractors of All Faiths Will Kneel in Reverence to Nation's Defenders.

Special, More Solemn Observance of Hallowed Event Planned by Churches.

Services in many Detroit churches Thursday will emphasize the deeper and more solemn significance of Memorial day this year, when, besides doing reverence to a fallen generation, America will kneel in prayer for those who have given their lives and those facing the supreme sacrifice in the titanic struggle against autocratic oppression of the peoples of the world.

It is desired in Detroit that special observance of Memorial day be requested by the proclamation of President Wilson. Prayers appropriate to the day will be offered in all Roman Catholic churches at the regular service.

Will Not Count as Week-End.

Presbyterians will hold services at 10:30 o'clock in the Fort street church, and in the evening, in the First Presbyterian church. Several churches in the northern districts of the city will join in services in the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Thursday morning.

Memorial observance will conclude a separate service at a o'clock in the evening.

Observance of the day by Woodward Avenue Baptist church will be made Wednesday night.

A sermon on "Not by Might or Power, but by My Spirit, Hath the Lord of Hosts," and a musical program will be given Thursday morning in Piquette theatre, under the auspices of the Piquette theatre.

The services here have been arranged so as not to conflict with the annual day parade, which will start at 1:30 o'clock from Woodward avenue and Brady street.

City to Pay for Transportation.

Appropriation of $14,000 was made by the council, ways and means committee Thursday to defray the expenses of bringing several hundred Detroit boys from Camp Croft, North Carolina.

Chariters and Public to Join in Night "Sing".

Members of the Detroit Female chorus, which William Howard director are requested to join in the "sing" at 8 o'clock Thursday evening at 1118 o'clock in front of the city hall in connection with the general observance of Memorial day.

The Detroit Female chorus will lead the singing of the "Star-Spangled Banner" and patriotic songs. The chorus will be accompanied by the orchestra of the Detroit Female chorus.

Members of the Detroit Female chorus will be given a special dinner at the city hall on Thursday evening.
