

roughs Adding Machine company and J. Hudson company characters will be seated in the north grandstand. Words of the patriotic and popular songs will be thrown on a screen, where they may be read easily, and the public is expected to take in the singing.

construction, covered eight acres and was being prepared for opening of the season, having been since daily looked upon as the first started this with the nation, where they may be read easily, and the public is expected to take in the singing.

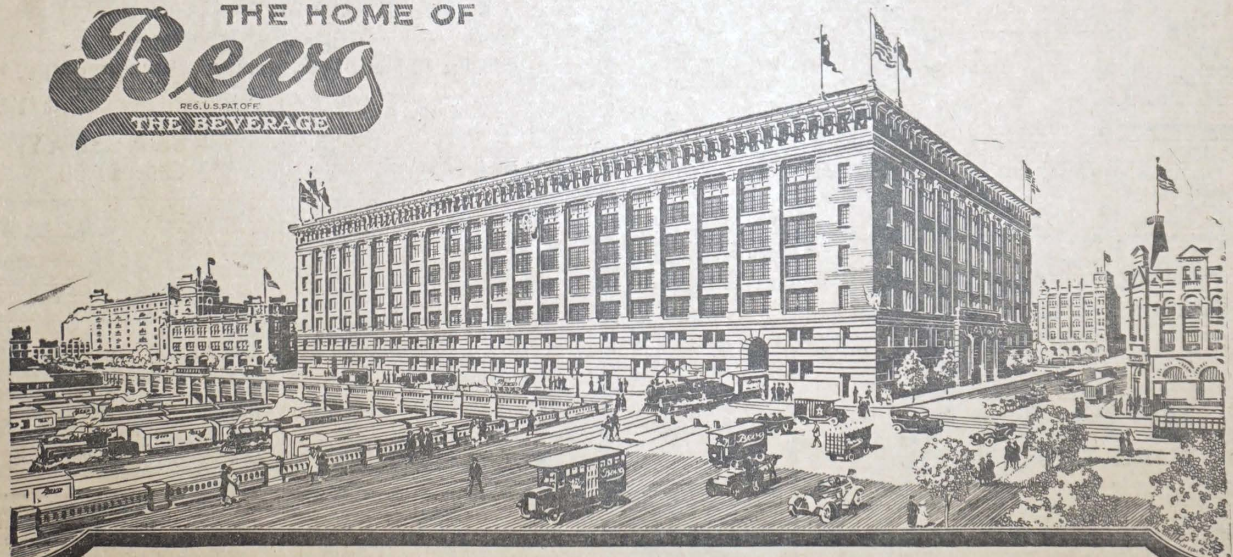

biased and laid by Right Rev. Bishop Bailey, of Ann Arbor, at a school in the afternoon, at which they will be given under direction of George Oster Bowen, community music director.

The music association is supported by contribution of civic organizations and the board of education and the board of aldermen and which are given under direction of George Oster Bowen, community music director.

and D. H. Roberts of Cleveland, member of the board of directors of the national association. Featured in the afternoon session. President of the association and having attached a white girl.

Cor. Woodward and Jefferson

THE HOME OF
Bevo
 REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.
 TRADE MARK

ANHEUSER-BUSCH, ST. LOUIS.

The universal popularity of Bevo made it necessary to erect this building—the largest of its character in the world. Covers two city blocks. Floor space 26 acres. A basement 30 feet high containing 13 tracks each to accommodate ten freight cars. Will employ 2,500 people and have a bottling capacity of two million bottles daily, equal to 140 car loads, on an eight hour day basis.