JACK DEMPSEY ONLY WANTS A HALF MILLION

For About One Hour of His Services Against Carpentier—The Champion of the World Wants a Bundle That Sets the Record.

BY HENRY L. PARRILL.
 (United from Staff Correspondent.)
 NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Jack Dempsey may want a half million. For about one hour of his services against George Carpentier, the big world heavyweight champion wants an income that would make his D.J.'s look like a counterfeit dime.

Jack Kearns has a verbal punch against promoters stronger than the wallop of his broad-winged in the arena, who operates on a sliding scale that always looks upward, he even the shipyard's wooden and the French aviator would draw a million dollar rate, and that Dempsey must have half of it or he won't fight.

AT TAUNTON, Dec. 16.—The boys were: J. J. O'Connell, captain; J. J. O'Connell, second; J. J. O'Connell, third; J. J. O'Connell, fourth; J. J. O'Connell, fifth; J. J. O'Connell, sixth; J. J. O'Connell, seventh; J. J. O'Connell, eighth; J. J. O'Connell, ninth; J. J. O'Connell, tenth.

13 TAUNTON GREEN, TAUNTON

Guinness

YOU'LL like Gansett. It's so fresh and invigorating and sparkling, so rich with the flavor of malt, so stimulating with the vim of sun-ripened hops that it has met with general popularity.

Made by the Narragansett Brewing Co., which has had nearly a third of a century's experience in brewing beverages that are a perfect blend of malt and hops, perfectly ripened.

Order a glass to-day at your favorite soda fountain, restaurant, hotel or club, or have a case sent to your home by any good grocer.
