

Tropical Park Handicap Won By Huskie Boy

Outsider Defeats Knowning By Five Lengths at 5 1/2 Furlongs, Pays $16.30; McCombs Rides a Triple

CORAL GABLES, Fla., March 17 (AP).—W. C. Stroube's Huskie Boy, the only three-year-old in the field and longest priced of the five starters, romped to victory in the St. Patrick's Handicap before a good-sized crowd this afternoon. The Bull Dog colt, paying $16.30, registered by five lengths and ran the five and a half furlongs in 1:06 1/5. The track was fast, despite light morning showers.

Kenneth McCombs was astride the winner for his second season on a program in which the various events were named after the patron saint of Ireland. Kitchy played and collected both times, for McCombs was the only jockey performing with an "Mr" in his name.

McCombs rode out a riding time when he guided Starwick home by three lengths at odds of $17.50 for $2 in the closing contest.

Knowing Places Second

Longchamps Farms' Knowing, a galloping winner of his last and favorite in the small field, took second money behind Huskie Boy by a length and a half from J. Van Winkle's Gene Wagers. Lady Higgins was fourth and Double B. last. Gene Wagers had the best of the start. He broke in advance of the others from the outside position, but Huskie Boy, which had stopped badly in the recent race won by Bigey, had the foot to shoot through on the rail and take a daylight lead at the first furlong. The surprise horse kept increasing his lead and had nothing to fear in the stretch run. Knowing saved ground and was hard ridden while overtaking Gene Wagers. Lady Higgins and Double B. were badly outrun.

A. G. Tarn's Wise Fox, a 2-to-1 favorite, raced to his second straight triumph in the third event of a mile and sixty yards. Well ridden by Johnny Longden, the three-year-old son of Gallant Fox was restrained behind the early pace of Birdie and Petit Fours. Longden clucked to the colt leaving the far side and his mouth bounded to the front, opened up a comfortable lead and was followed by two lengths. Becky Bates was a fast closing second, three lengths clear of Birdie.

Jack Patches Pays $38.90

An upset occurred with the running of the mile and a sixteenth sixth race. Jack Patches, a $38.90 to $2 proposition, scored by a length and a half, giving the Cogswage Stable a double. Stocks nosed out Terschore for second money. Porter Roberts broke Jack Patches in from the combination never was headed. Buttermilk and then Terschore tried to keep up with the gelding. Neither was equal to the task, nor was Stocks with his stretch bid. Taut, recently claimed by the Cogswage Stable for $1,500, carried his new silks to victory in the opening event for two-year-old maidens. With McCombs replacing George Seabo as his saddleman, Taut held on gamely to score by a half length over the neglected Laveroy, which returned $7.90 for place. Darby Dean, the choice, was a belated third, a head behind. Taut ran down the fast starting Gibor and was powerfully ridden to maintain a slight advantage to the wire. He returned $11.80.

371 Dogs in 46 Breeds

Entered in Dayton Show

DAYTON, Ohio, March 17 (UP).—A total of 371 dogs, representing forty-six breeds, today entered their stalls at the thirteenth annual dog show of the Dayton Kennel Club, which opened in Memorial Hall. Thirty American Kennel Club champions were among the entries. Earliest among the competitors were two Sussex spaniels entered by C. C. Ulmer, of Newport, Ky. It marked the competitive debut for this breed of dog in any Dayton show. Cocker spaniels were entered in greater numbers than any other breed, there being forty-nine. The show will continue through Friday.
