KAMMANN AND BARNES SPRING UPSET IN CLAYTON DOUBLES

DEFEAT HODGE AND W. SMITH IN THREE SETS

Allan Carvell, Junior Davis Cup Player, Carries McMillin to Limit in Singles Match.

By Davison Obear.

Play in the Clayton open tennis championship is now in the semi-final round in the men's doubles as the result of matches completed yesterday afternoon. The men's singles has reached the quarterfinal round with the exception of two contests.

Karl Kammann and Charles Barnes, former Washington University players, provided the second upset in the doubles by defeating Karl Hodge and Wayne Smith, fourth seeded team, 6-4, 4-6, 7-5.

There were no upsets in the singles matches yesterday but several of the seeded players were given hard fights by younger players. Allan Carvell, Junior Davis Cup player, carried Charlie McMillin, seeded No. 3, to three sets, 6-1, 6-2, 7-5.

Jimmie Johnson, another Junior Davis Cup star, forced George Prebitzky, seeded No. 2, to a three-set battle. Johnson captured the first set, 6-2, but dropped the next two 6-4, 6-2. Frank Keaney, second seeded player, had his hands full against Jack Bascom, Washington University team player, before winning, 6-4, 4-6, 8-6.

shot from the rough for an eagle 2 on the 415-yard fourth hole.

The winning score for the 72-hole drive was expected to range between 285 and 290.

Besides Sarazen and Manero, five other former champions made bids again for the most prized of this country's golfing plums. They were Willie MacFarlane, winner in 1925; Tommy Armour, of 1927 fame; Bill Burke, victor in the famous marathon playoff of 1931; Olin Dutra, kingpin in 1934, and Sam Parks Jr., surprise leader in 1935.

The field will be trimmed to the low 60 scores and ties after 36 holes. Single rounds were scheduled today and Friday.

$394 WINNER AT AGAWAM AND $3258 'DOUBLE'

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

AGAWAM, Mass., June 9.—Gemwick, a four-year-old filly, owned by J. Skarbek, won the second race of her career here this afternoon and refunded $394.80 for a $2 win ticket in capturing the first race, a six-furlong event.

Gemwick made 23 starts last year, finished first once, seconds once and third four times. She made two starts this year and ran out of the money both times. Last Thursday she ran eighth in a field of 10.

She was given a good ride today by Jockey W. Vassar and finished the dash in 1:14 3-5. She paid $164 for a $2 place ticket and $39.20 for $2 to show.

Coupled with Good Dame, winner of the second race, Gemwick paid $3258 for $2 in the daily double.

40 to 1 Shot Wins at Aqueduct.

By the Associated Press.

AQUEDUCT, N. Y., June 9. — Image of War, a two-year-old son of Roi Grey owned and bred by Samuel D. Riddle, thrilled the crowd here this afternoon when he drove to victory at odds of 40 to 1 in the opening dash of five furlongs. The colt, far back in his one previous outing at Belmont Park, broke well from his outside position, cut over and interfered with the favored Bee Bright and Rippler, then went on to score by a length and a half in 1:01 3-5. Bee Bright recovered and made a game effort while earning the place, a head before Speedy Booger, which tired battling for the lead with the winner.

CHARLES SCHALL WINS TWO CASTING EVENTS

Charles Schall won two events, tied for first in a third and tied for third in a fourth event in the tournament conducted by the St. Louis Fly & Baitcasting Club. In the fifth event, Schall was third.

THREE-EIGHTHS OUNCE ACCURACY—First, Charles Schall, 98; second, Dr. C. K. Higgins, 97; third, H. J. Steinmesch, 94.

FIVE-EIGHTHS OUNCE ACCURACY—First, Charles Schall, 98; second, C. F. Forcade and H. J. Steinmesch, tied, 96.

WET FLY—First, C. F. Forcade and Clark Johnston tied at 98 (cast-off won by Forcade with a score of 98); third, Charles Schall and Robert Piros, tied, 97.

DRY FLY—First, Charles Schall and Clark Johnston tied at 91; third, Robert Piros, 90.

FIVE-EIGHTHS OUNCE DISTANCE—First, Dr. C. K. Higgins, long cast 293 feet, average 290 feet; second, Robert Piros, long cast 275 feet, average 272 feet; third, Charles Schall, long cast 225 feet, average 217 feet.

TWO FOES FOR DUSEK TONIGHT

Ernie Dusek of Nebraska will wrestle two foes tonight at the Coliseum when he will attempt to pin Chief Little Beaver and Warren Bockwinkel, a pair of heavyweights, in a one-hour time limit match.

The loser of the toss of a coin will take on Dusek first. If the latter wins, his other foe will enter the ring, with no rest period between; if not, the match will be ended. In case Dusek fails to pin both, he will forfeit his end of the 40 per cent purse, says Bill Schwabe, promoter.

Four half-hour time limit matches make up the remainder of the program. They will bring together Pete Baltram, Chicago, 215, and Andy Meixner, Phoenix, Ariz., 215, in the semi-windup; Ray Eckert, St. Louis, 212, vs. Cherry Vallina, East St. Louis, 210, half-hour time limit; Percy Lyon, Canada, 155, vs. Milo Occhi, St. Louis, 160, and Kurt Colzhausen, Germany, 180, vs. Walter McMillen, St. Louis, 175.

JOCKEY DICKINSON THROWN AND INJURED AT SUFFOLK DOWNS

BOSTON, June 9.—Jockey Teddy Dickinson, 22 years old, was thrown from the Rosedale Stable's Allentown yesterday in the third race at Suffolk Downs and suffered lacerations of the nose and forehead and contusions of the lower back.
