Flinchum To Report Next Week

Ten horses have been nominated for the Inaugural Handicap, which will feature the opening of the fall racing at Fairmount Park Saturday, Raleigh Leigh, racing secretary, announced.

The horses nominated are Sabre, Silver Wind, All Lizzie, Half Time, Flag Post, Burgoon Miss, Wise Dean, Roader, Golden Eyes, and Fife.

Jackie Flinchum, crack jockey, who rides for the Byrums brothers and who was scheduled to be atop Boss Hoss in the Labor Day Handicap, will not make his first appearance at the Fairmount racing unit Tuesday because of a suspension handed him at Dade Park.

Clockers, headed by Teague Pichon and Bill Murphy, have been gun their duties at Fairmount.

About 100 horses from Dade Park, Washington Park and Connaught Park arrived Monday. One of the horses arriving was The Nizam, owned by J. H. Huff.

Officials Named for Fairmount Meeting

JOLIET, Ill., Aug. 26 (AP)—The Illinois Racing Board yesterday announced it would arrange a series of meetings designed to encourage horse breeding in the State and said that track stewards would be invited to participate.

The board also announced officials for the Hawthorne and Fairmount racing seasons and voted to give track stewards discretionary power to declare fouls and decide finish positions of horses in races where finish lines on the board cited as example a race in which two horses were far in the lead and said it if fouled it would not necessarily have to be placed last.

Officials named for the Fairmount meeting were: Presiding steward, Christopher C. Clegg Jr.; track stewards, John T. Dilland and Frederic Crofton; director of mutuels, Oscar Bachman; veterinarian, Dr. H. N. Holmes.
